

NURSERY & LANDSCAPE SYMPOSIUM:

Pretty Tough Plants – New Evaluations and Selections from Across the South

An opportunity to engage with horticultural experts from Land Grant Universities and the USDA

Presentations and Speakers

- VITEX - New Varieties, Selection, Breeding and Landscape Use (Allen Owings, Louisiana State University)
- Tree Skin: The Beauty of Tree Bark (Alex Niemiera, Virginia Tech)
- Do Little Dogs Catch The Big Dogs After A While – Or Does Container Size Matter? (Mike Arnold, Texas A&M)
- All-America Selections - Trialed and Proven for Home Gardens and New for 2017 (Eugene Blythe, Mississippi State University)
- The Trilogy is Complete – The Third in a Series of IPM Books Released by the Southern Nursery IPM Working Group (Matthew Chappell, University of Georgia)
- Texas Tough Nativars Bring Heat, Drought, and Salinity Tolerance to the Table! (Mike Arnold, Texas A&M)
- Flowering and Field Evaluation of Witch Hazels in Tennessee (Lisa Alexander, USDA National Arboretum)

SERA27: Nursery Crop and Landscape Systems
(IEG-63)

JUNE 2, 2017
8:30AM – 1PM

OTIS L. FLOYD
NURSERY
RESEARCH CENTER
472 CADILLAC LN
MCMINNVILLE, TN
37110

REGISTRATION FEE
$20
(INCLUDES LUNCH)

PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED
BY MAY 19
(SEATS LIMITED)

PRE-REGISTRATION

Contact:

Anthony Witcher

awitcher@tnstate.edu

931-815-5147