Educational Background

Degrees	Institution	Year
Ph.D. Plant and Soil Science	The University of Tennessee	1980
M.S. Plant & Soil Science	Tennessee State University	1976
B.S. General Agriculture	Loma Linda University	1974

Dr. Bullock holds a PhD rank of full professor in Plant and Soil Science (Extension Agriculture and Natural Resources)

In 1991, Fitzroy Bullock (Roy) joined the University of Tennessee as an Associate Professor after spending nine and one-half years at The University of Georgia as a weed scientist. Crops covered in Tennessee on small and large commercial farms were Vegetables, Fruits, Soybean, Nurseries, Turf and Ornamentals, Roadsides, Non-crop lands, Pastures, and limited work on Corn and Cotton. In 2000 by a mutual joint agreement between Tennessee State University and The University of Tennessee he was assigned the responsibilities to lead and coordinate the development of a proactive small farms educational program for both Tennessee State University and The University of Tennessee. This new assignment allowed a 60/40 percent split between Tennessee State University and The University of Tennessee respectively.
