

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS
NASHVILLE BRANCH
2015 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP:

The 2015 ASCE - Nashville Branch Scholarship is intended to be awarded to multiple recipients. Eligibility is open to any student of the four engineering universities; Lipscomb University, Tennessee Tech University, Tennessee State University, and Vanderbilt University and children of current members of the Nashville Branch enrolled in Civil Engineering (regardless of location). It is the intent of the Nashville Branch to continue this as an annual program to assist civil engineering students in their studies.

WHO MAY APPLY:

Engineering students who:

- (1) will be juniors, seniors or graduate students majoring in Civil, Environmental or Structural Engineering;
- (2) can demonstrate some financial need;
- (3) have a grade point average of at least 2.5 or better on a 4.0 scale;
- (4) are presently enrolled full-time (at least 12 credit hours) and in good standing with the university;
- (5) are citizens of the United States.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- (1) Complete the application form.
- (2) Write a one-page letter about yourself, your background and your goals etc.

All completed forms and letters must be returned to:
