

Andrea Bond Johnson, MBA, CPIA

Brownsville, TN, native Andrea Bond Johnson continues the entrepreneurial legacy her grandfather C. A. Rawls set over eighty years ago. Bond Johnson, CEO of Golden Circle Insurance Agency, Inc. operates her business in the same building her grandfather and parents, Maltimore ('56) and Cynthia Bond, managed the family business, Golden Circle Life Insurance Company, for over fifty years.

In 1989, Andrea earned a Bachelor's degree in Business Management from Tennessee State University. Then in 2004, she earned an executive MBA from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville. She holds a Series 7 and Series 66.

She is a licensed Funeral Director with Rawls Funeral Systems; Past president of The Jackson, TN Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.; Member, Jackson, TN Chapter of the Links, Inc.; and was a member of the Tennessee Tax Structure Study Commission (2003-2004). She is a Life Member of the Haywood County Branch NAACP and current treasurer, a Sterling Award Recipient cited as one of the most influential women in West Tennessee, received the Outstanding Leadership Award from The WestStar African American Conference, Cited as Delta of the Year 2015, 2010 WestStar Graduate, serves on the Planning Zone Commission; Past Board member of the Tennessee Professional Insurers Association, currently serves on the Carl Perkins Board of Directors, Haywood County Board of Directors for the Boys & Girls Club, Board Member of The Reading Railroad, Current president of the Brownsville Rotary Club and is a Paul Harris Fellow with Rotary International. In 2011, Golden Circle Insurance Agency received the Business of the Year Award from The Chamber of Commerce.

Andrea and her husband Dwight ('89) established the Golden Circle Insurance Agency, Inc., a Property and Casualty agency in 2001 after working in the family businesses. They have two sons, Dwight, II and David Alan and are members of the Jefferson Street Church of Christ.