

LESLIE COLEMAN

Leslie Coleman, a Global Human Resources Leader, has provided support for major corporations over two decades. Leslie's work in Human Resources spans over 57 countries and 8 business sectors from around the globe. Coleman is also the Founder and Owner of Resume Executive, a career coaching and development organization designed to support individuals at all levels of their career.

Coleman earned a Bachelor's Degree in Human Resources with a minor in Psychology at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Graduating with honors from the University of Memphis, she secured a Masters in Psychology and Research and has a published article titled "Self Theories". Ms. Coleman served as former President of National Black MBA Association – Memphis Chapter and serves in a number of other national Board roles to include: National Black MBA, 4-H, YWCA, Tennessee State University, Stillman College, TAG and The Orpheum.

Leslie has spent the majority of her career mentoring and loves every aspect of serving her community as well as educating her clients, cohorts and associates on the importance of personal and professional development. Leslie's community efforts expanded to her embarking on a grassroots initiative entitled, "Operation Resume Rescue," September 4, 2005. Leslie created this non-profit organization to assist the victims of Hurricane Katrina obtain gainful employment. As a business professional, Leslie, accompanied by other business professionals, understood the importance of providing an employer with a snap shot of previous work experience and organized efforts to meet the victim's needs by providing career coaching/counseling at shelters, churches and completing on-the-spot resumes and job searches at no charge. Leslie and her twin sister, Lori, recently created, "The Lannie R. Swanigan Scholarship Fund," geared towards supporting first year college students seeking a four year degree.

Leslie has two son's, Luke and Lane Coleman and currently resides in Memphis, TN. Leslie's motto: "Forward to the possibilities," has served her well and continues to be the ground swell for her success!
