Dear Honor Students and Faculty:

Congratulations to each of you for your outstanding achievements in academic excellence. We salute you in our Honors Convocation today for your hard work, dedication and determination to continue the legacy of excellence at Tennessee State University.

We are proud of the number of 2,500 Dean’s List students and those on the President’s List who are being recognized here today for their outstanding work. You represent one of our largest Honors classes ever! Thanks also to our outstanding professor.

We also have the pleasure and honor of welcoming back to our campus, one of our own Honors scholars, Mr. Malick Badjie. Mr. Badjie epitomizes this year’s theme of “Saluting Academic Excellence and Preparing Leaders for the Global Marketplace”. He has taken the Tiger Spirit worldwide as he continues to Think, Work and Serve.

To our students, I wish you continued learning as you succeed in your careers, and may your path be blessed and prosperous.

Sincerely,

Dr. Glenda Glover
8th President of Tennessee State University

Robeco has an innovative, research-driven investment approach. Research is translated in active investment strategies run by various specialized asset management teams and units. Together with our sister company and sustainability specialist RobecoSAM, Robeco has been at the forefront of sustainable investing since 1995. As per end of December 2017, Robeco had EUR 152 billion in assets under management, 70% of which were institutional. Robeco is a subsidiary of ORIX Corporation Europe N.V. which had assets under management of EUR 283 billion as at end of December 2017. Robeco has been at the forefront of sustainability investing since the 1990’s. We believe and demonstrate that good corporate governance and social responsibility enhance the long-term risk-return profiles of our investment portfolios.
In 1963, Dr. Walter S. Davis, the second President of Tennessee State University (TSU), appointed a committee that was charged with the responsibility of studying honors programs and determining the feasibility of establishing one at the University. After completing the investigation, the committee recommended that TSU keep pace with many other universities throughout the country. As a result, an Honors Program for freshman students was started in the fall semester of 1964. Sophomore through senior level course work was added annually throughout 1968, thus marking the year of the first student to graduate with “University Honors”, a distinction that is reserved for students who have successfully completed the requirements of the University Honors College (UHC).

Dr. McDonald Williams became director of the Honors Program at TSU in 1966 and held that position until his retirement in 1988. Additionally, he gave 30 years of distinguished service as an English professor at TSU. The University Honors Center, which is now located in the Harold M. Love, Sr. Student Success Center, was named the McDonald Williams Honors Center, on October 31, 1995. Dr. Joan Elliot served as interim director from 1988-1990, Dr. Mayibuye Monanabela served as director from 1990 – 1992 and Dr. Sandra Holt from 1992 – 2013. The current dean, Dr. Coreen Jackson, was appointed by Glenda Glover, President of Tennessee State University in 2013.

It was the desire of Glenda Glover, President of Tennessee State University, and administrators to implement the goal of the Academic Master Plan 2008-2028 that enhanced the Honors Program and transitioned it into an Honors College. In January, 2016, the Honors Program was approved by the Tennessee Board of Regents and the Tennessee Higher Education Committee to be elevated from an Honors Program to an Honors College. The Honors College currently consists of over 500 multi-disciplinary students who maintain an average GPA of 3.49.

It is our honor to be celebrating the TSU’s Honors College with this observation of academic excellence and a commitment to higher education during the 2018 Honors Convocation.

UNIVERSITY-WIDE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETIES

Alpha Kappa Mu Honor Society  Dr. Coreen Jackson, Chapter Advisor
Founded at Tennessee Agricultural and Industrial College (now Tennessee State University) on November 26, 1937 by Dr. George W. Gore as the only national honor society for African-Americans, Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society now has more than 75,000 academically gifted and talented men and women of all races, ethnicities, religions and national origins committed to promote high scholarship; to encourage sincere and zealous endeavors in all fields of knowledge and service; to cultivate a high order of personal living; and to develop an appreciation for scholarly work and scholarly endeavor in others.

Golden Key International Honor Society  Dr. Tyrone Miller, Primary Advisor
The goals of the Golden Key International Honor Society are to recognize and encourage scholastic achievement and excellence in all undergraduate fields of study, to unite with faculty and administrators in developing and maintaining high standards of education, to provide economic assistance to outstanding members by means of both undergraduate and graduate scholarships, and to promote altruistic conduct through voluntary service. Membership is by invitation to those students who are in the top 15 percent of their junior and senior class. Full-time as well as part-time students qualify, and members include both traditional and non-traditional students. The TSU Golden Key chapter was chartered in May 1978. Worldwide, there are more than 250 chapters.

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi  Dr. Samantha Morgan-Curtis, Chapter President
The primary objective of the national Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi is the recognition and encouragement of superior scholarship in all academic disciplines. The Society is convinced that in recognizing and honoring those persons of good character who have excelled in scholarship, in whatever field, it will stimulate others to strive for excellence. For undergraduate initiates, as juniors, students must be in the top 7.5% of their class; and as seniors, students must be in the top 10% of their class. Moreover, the society serves the interests of the student capable of excellence by insisting that in order to acquire a chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, an institution provide the means and atmosphere conducive to academic excellence. Phi Kappa Phi was founded in 1897, and the TSU chapter was established in April 1994.

Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society  Dr. Erik Schmeller, Primary Advisor
Phi Eta Sigma is a national honor society rewarding first-year collegiate scholarship. The oldest and largest first year honor society, Phi Eta Sigma was founded at the University of Illinois in 1923. The Tennessee State University Chapter was founded in 2004. The motto of the society is, “Knowledge is Power”.
