

Bobby L. Lovett is senior Professor of History, formerly Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Tennessee State University, and a native of Memphis, Tennessee. He earned the Ph.D. and the M.A. degrees at the University of Arkansas, in American History, medieval Europe, history of England; dissertation, The Negro in Tennessee, 1861-1866: A Socio-Military History of the Civil War Era. He earned the B. A. degree in history and political science at the Arkansas A.M. & N. State College, and completed political science courses at Columbia University, NY.

Professor Lovett's most recent books: The African American History of Nashville, 1780-1930: Elites and Dilemmas (University of Arkansas Press, 1999), 314 pages, 22 photographs; The Civil Rights Movement in Tennessee: a Narrative History (University of Tennessee Press, 2005), 483 pages, 22 photographs, which won "Tennessee History Book Award" by the Tennessee Library Association and Tennessee Historical Commission; and How It Came To Be: The Boyd Family's Contribution to African American Publishing from the 19th to the 21st Century (Mega Publishing Co., 2007), 211 pages, 100 photographs.

Lovett's Articles, book chapters and reviews appear in several scholarly journals, books, and encyclopedias. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Tennessee Historical Society, the Editorial Board of the Tennessee Historical Quarterly, and the Advisory Board for the Tennessee Civil War Heritage Area. He has served two terms on the Editorial Board of the Arkansas Historical Quarterly.

Dr. Bobby Lovett's Materials

1. The Negro in Tennessee, 1861-1866 E185.93.T3 L68 1980 Spec. Coll. We have it in print and microform.
2. Profiles in African Americans in Tennessee E185.93.T3 P76 1996 Spec. Coll.
3. How It Came To Be: The Boyd Family's Contribution To African American Religious Publishing from 19th to 21st Century BX6455.B69 L68 2007 Spec. Coll.
4. Introduction to Afro-American Culture & History 2nd Annual Local Conference Sound Recording E185.A3 1985 Spec. Coll.
5. The African History of Nashville, Tennessee, 1780-1930 F444.N29 N45 1999 Spec. Coll.
6. Black Man's Dream: The First 100 Years BX64555.B66 L68 1993 Spec. Coll.
7. Civil Rights Movement In Tennessee E185.93.T3 L68 2005 Spec. Coll.