

Library Extended Hours

For Midterm Exams

The Main Campus Library has finalized plans to provide extended hours of operation for midterm exams. The Library will be open twenty-four (24) hours beginning Sunday, February 26 through Tuesday, February 28, 2012. The library will resume regular hours of operation beginning Wednesday, February 29 at 7:30 a.m. We would like to advise students to act responsibly and use this time for study to prepare for exams.

TSU Security will be on duty during extended hours and only TSU students, faculty and staff will be allowed to use the library between 12:00 midnight and 7:30 a.m. during this period. Anyone entering the library between those hours will be asked to present a valid TSU identification card. Staff is encouraged to report any unruly and/or suspicious activity to the onsite security guard.

Regular library services such as reference and computer assistance will not be available during extended hours. As our policy indicates, eating, drinking and ringing cell phones will not be allowed.

Good Luck on your exams!
