Shea is a Nashville native, an artist and a creative photographer who loves to travel. Born and raised in the Music City Capitol of Nashville, she was exposed to various aspects of art, design, fashion, and music. She professionally trained at Bauder College in Atlanta as a fashion designer. Two years ago she decided to leave the corporate world to pursue her passion, living as a freelance makeup artist & photographer. Sharing experiences with others, through her photos and allowing the viewer to create their own story and have their own emotions & connections with each photo.

"I am not a painter, I paint thru my pictures" , Shea
