FIRST WOMAN VICE PRESIDENT

Ivan L. Lampkin

Can you name the lady who has devoted some 23 years of service to Tennessee State University and is strictly here for the students? First, she was an inspiring student, then, as the director of student activities and student union in 1965, Asst. Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of Students in 1975 to her present position. This person is Mrs. Barbara Murrell, Vice President of Student Affairs.

Mrs. Murrell, the first woman at TSU to hold this position, was born in Starkville, Mississippi, where she became her high school's valedictorian.

While a student at TSU she majored in biology, she was a member of the university choir and represented her homestate as Miss Mississippi her freshman year; a sister of Delta Sigma Theta sorority, an Omega Psi Phi sweetheart her sophomore year; a member of Beta Kappa Chi, (a national honor society for science majors) her junior year; was recognized in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities her senior year and served as Miss TSU.

When asked for an overall statement she could give to all students, she had this to say. "I would like to encourage students to take every advantage here at Tennessee State University, so that they can develop mentally, physically and socially in order to be prepared to make special contributions to their communities. We must never forget that education is the master key to life because without it, it's hard to find open doors."

Dr. Humphries presents Dr. Pruitt with an award of merit at August 1981 commencement.

PRUITT MOVES

George A. Pruitt, former vice president for student services at Tennessee State University starting in 1975, has been named the executive vice president of the Council for the Advancement of Experiential Learning (CAEL) in Columbia, Maryland.

In his new position, which became effective August 1, Dr. Pruitt will be in charge of the day-to-day operations of CAEL, a national nonprofit educational organization of colleges, universities, service agencies, corporations and individuals who have a commitment to experiential learning.

Prior to coming to TSU in 1975, he was vice president of student services and executive assistant to the president at Morgan State University in Baltimore. He has been dean of students at Towson State College and Director of the High Potential Students Program at Illinois State University.

He serves on the Board of Trustees of the Nashville Urban League and is a member of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce.

TSU's EARLY LEARNING CENTER

Six-week old infant learns to swim in the Early Learning Center program.

The philosophy implemented in the program of TSU's Early Learning Center is a combination of selected theories of Piaget and Erikson. These theories focus beyond the young boy and girl of today, but rather the focus is on the man and woman he/she will become tomorrow. The teacher takes on the role of observer and questioner and encourages intrinsic motivation, interest, curiosity, creativity, and independent thinking as well as confidence in self and cooperation with others.

The curriculum is designed to present the child with a wide range of experiences, opportunities, and explorations with which he can interact; and to help him with his reflection process. His own thoughts and perceptions are developed; they are not molded into others.

The program which opens with the TSU 1981-82 academic year is focused on child-initiated and teacher-initiated activities. Not only is there concern for his safety and physical well-being; but also how he feels about himself. The children are served a balanced meal and two snacks daily.

Its primary function, however, is to serve as a teacher training and research center in the education and training of young children and programs for children.

Here are some of the services available to the children:

1. Dental Screening . . . provided by Meharry Medical College
2. Motor Development and Evaluation . . . provided by the TSU Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation
3. Screening Diagnostic Examination for speech, hearing, and language disorders . . . made by the Speech Pathology and Audiology Department of the School of Allied Health.

The summer program offers opportunities to experience activities not offered during the regular term. These include crafts, music and swimming classes and for the older child tennis lessons. To balance off this program the children are served a hot meal and two snacks daily.

Interested? To enroll your child in the Early Learning Center's Nursery School or Kindergarten, obtain an application blank from the Office of Program Director, Home Economic Building, Room 116.

Juliet Mason, a volunteer, helps with the summer swimming classes.

ANNIE GRAY HARRIS SASSER

Francis S. Guess, Commissioner of General Services for Tennessee, presenting Mrs. Sasser with Tennessee's Outstanding Achievement Award on behalf of Governor Lamar Alexander.

The "Lady of the Day" for our Homecoming 1981 was Annie Gray Harris Sasser. For many years Annie Gray Harris Sasser was at the center of numerous Tennessee State University activities. Six years after her retirement, she was at the center of an important campus event again. Homecoming 1981 was dedicated to Mrs. Sasser and her contributions to the University.

The Raleigh, N.C., native is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Harris. She earned a bachelor's degree from Shaw University and taught at Kittrell College, Kittrell, N.C., for one year. The following year, she married her high school sweetheart, Dr. Earl L. Sasser. The Sassers moved to Texas, where Dr. Sasser became head of the Prairie View State College English Department and Mrs. Sasser began their family. They had two sons, Earl L. Sasser Jr., who was one of the first civil engineering graduates of TSU, and the late George S. Sasser, an Air Force major who was killed in a plane crash over Thailand.

Sasser's association with TSU began in 1944 when her husband joined the English Department faculty. In January, 1945, the late TSU President W.S. Davis offered her a temporary assignment teaching mathematics.

Three months later, when Sasser was asked to report for duty with the city school system, she went to Davis with the intention of resigning. Davis prevailed upon her to stay because of the excellent work she had done. Thus, Sasser embarked on a 29-year commitment to the University.

During those years, Sasser held teaching responsibilities, served as director of student activities, laid the groundwork for the current Career Planning and Placement Center, served on numerous campus committees and was active in many local and national organizations.

TSU has recognized Sasser's contributions on several occasions in the past. The 1955-56 Student Council of Tennessee A&I State University recognized her for outstanding contributions to the social development of students. In 1974 she received recognition from the Pan Hellenic Council and the Student Government Association for her dedicated service and leadership.

'CHATT'

Robert Churchwell — writer
Barry Hobbs — researcher

Suchindran S. Chatterjee, holder of the Doctor of Philosophy Degree in engineering communications from Vanderbilt University, is both a teacher and student at Tennessee State University and he "loves it."

A native of India whose father is a professional engineer, Dr. Chatterjee is an assistant professor and coordinator of technical communications in the TSU Department of English. During the 1981-82 academic year Chatterjee took his place in the student body to study computer science in the School of Business.

"I love Tennessee State University," said the youthful Chatterjee, 30. He said colleagues in both the Schools of Arts and Sciences and Engineering are "friendly" and he is able to work without undue pressure.

"I love being in school at TSU because I love being in school," added Chatterjee, who received a senior high school diploma in 1965 when he was 13 years old; received two bachelor degrees in English and aeronautical engineering in 1970 from the University of Madras in Coimbatore, India; a master's degree in English and linguistics in 1973 at the age of 19 from the same university, where he became an assistant professor of technical-English; the master of science degree from Vanderbilt in 1977; and the Ph.D. in 1980.

Chatterjee, who currently is writing two textbooks and developing a curriculum that will offer technical writing as a major and minor field of study at TSU, scored a top 4.0 academic grade point average all the way from high school through Ph.D. work at Vanderbilt.

"What makes me angry the most is stupidity," said Chatterjee, who was honored by Cambridge University in England in 1979 as "The International Youth in Achievement."

He is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc., and serves as advisor to the TSU Beta Omicron undergraduate chapter. He also holds membership in the TSU Foundation; the YMCA; United Way; the Professional Society for Technical Communicators; the association for Teachers of Technical Writing; the American Education Research Association; and the American Association of University Professors.

Fred Jackson
S.G.A. President

The 1981-82 Academic year has been a great one for students at Tennessee State University. The road has been long and sometimes we had to look at success as failure turned inside out. The good moments as well as the bad moments will always be remembered by myself and the entire Student Government Association.

The 1981-82 S.G.A. has been very effective in trying to meet the student needs and informing the students on various issues that have effected them in many ways. As time moves on, hopefully we will be able to look back at the 1981-82 S.G.A. and continue to build on it for the betterment of Tennessee State University.

I have enjoyed serving the students at Tennessee State University, however I must say to you all, as time goes on when things go wrong, as they sometime will, rest if you must, it's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit.

Tennessee State University, I'll always remember you and have a great love for you!

Tennessee's Black College Day was hosted by Fisk University. Although the number of student participants were rather small, those who attended gained a lot of insight on the plight of black universities.

The observance began Sunday with a service in the chapel located on the campus of Fisk. There were also a series of seminars concerning the plight of the black institution, and a gospel program was held in the gym with gospel choirs from Fisk, Tennessee State University, American Baptist College and Vanderbilt University's Black Unity Choir.

The group heard from speakers including Leslie Davis, president of the student government at the American Baptist College, Dr. David Terrell, national president of Black Psychologists, Walter Searcy, President of the Nashville chapter of the NAACP, Attorney Richard Jackson, past president of Operation PUSH, Carol Watson, executive director of the Nashville chapter of Nashville Urban League and hostess of "Black Pulse", President Frederick Humphries, Cassandra Walker, assistant to the governor, Howard Gentry, Jr., director of Citizens Bank, Odell McGlothlin, president of American Baptist College, Thelma Mason, director of Mason's Business College, Fred Jackson, president of TSU's student government and James Williams, president of Fisk's student government.

CENTENNIAL BLVD. RENAMED FOR "BIG JOHN"

The Honorable Gov. Lamar Alexander, Dr. Fred Humphries, Senator Jim Sasser, Nashville Mayor Richard Fulton, Councilman Willie McAllister and friends of Big John look on as John Merritt officially cut the ribbon opening John A. Merritt Blvd.

By Juanita Buford

Centennial Boulevard between 28th and 44th Avenues will never be the same. Following a dedication ceremony and ribbon cutting on April 24, the thoroughfare officially became John Ayers Merritt Boulevard.

Attended by city and state dignitaries, such as Gov. Lamar Alexander, Mayor Richard Fulton, U.S. Congressmen Bill Boner and Jim Sasser, Metro Councilmen Willie McAllister and Charles French, and Davidson County Sheriff Fate Thomas, the dedication was an occasion for praising the accomplishments of Tennessee State University football coach John Merritt.

It was also an occasion at which old friends, former players and fans recalled how "Big John" touched their lives.

"John Merritt is one of the great coaches of all time," said U.S. Senator Jim Sasser. "The renaming of this boulevard is a tribute to a great man and a great leader."

Sasser continued by citing some of the highlights of Merritt's 19 years as head football coach at TSU: "TSU has never had a losing football team during the years John Merritt has been coach; John Merritt has never lost a homecoming football game; he has won more than 200 games, and more than 200 players coached by Merritt have gone on to play professional football.

Gov. Alexander presented Merritt with an Outstanding Tennessean Award and Mayor Fulton proclaimed the day to be "John Merritt Day" in Nashville.

McAllister, one of the sponsors of the bill for renaming the boulevard, commented on the difficulty of "getting 40 members of the Metro council to agree on anything."

"When it came to John Merritt, it wasn't that hard," McAllister said. "Speaking for the members of the Council, we all love you, John."

Among those who spoke as personal friends of Merritt's were assistant football coaches, Alvin Coleman and Joe Gilliam, Sr., "Killer" Johnson, and Drs. Fred Goldner and Ray Woosley. Former TSU football players Joe Gilliam, Jr. and Sylvester Hicks commented on how Merritt had made a difference in their lives.

"To borrow a line from my minister, this is a day the Lord has made," Merritt said in response to the presentations. "So many things have happened to bring us together today that the Lord must have had a hand in it."

"I'm not so big a fool to think this street is being renamed just because of me," he continued. This is a tribute to the football program at TSU, a tribute to the great hope and dignity it has brought to the people of North Nashville. All the players, all the fans, have had a part in it."

Referring to his fellow coaches, Coleman and Gilliam, Merritt continued, "We've formed a triumvirate — the three of us do a job together. We have come a long way together."

"My name is on the sign because I do one thing better than they do — I take praise better."

Later in the day, Merritt was honored by the TSU Foundation. The Foundation, a group of businesses and individuals who provide financial support for the university announced the establishment of a perpetual John A. Merritt Academic Scholarship during its annual dinner concert.

Administrators, faculty and staff celebrate Homecoming.

The TSU Homecoming reception, held in Vandy Memorial Gym was attended by local politicians, TV personalities, businessmen and numerous TSU alumni.

TIGER HIGHLIGHTS

The Tigers won their 5th straight game with a 42-30 victory over the University of Louisville. It was Louisville's homecoming, and one of the biggest wins in TSU history. The Cardinals defense was ranked 4th in the pass defense in major college statistics, yielding only 97 yards per game. As the team arrived in Louisville, the squad members picked up the local newspaper to see that they were picked to lose 31-7. And from that point on, Head Coach Big John Merritt didn't have to look for a motivating element to get his Cats up and ready to play.

TSU's QB Brian Ransom hit 14 of 30 passes for 364 yards and 3 TD's, Louisville got on the scoreboard with a 3 yard touchdown run by RB Don Croft. Two minutes later, Tiger DB Gary Davis intercepted a pass and raced 31 yards to the end zone. State's reserve RB Jackie Coffee went from 5 out to put TSU on top 13-7 after a missed PAT. With 11:25 left on the clock, Louisville went on top 14-13 on a touchdown run. State answered as Ransom hit WR Mike Jones on a sensational 84 yard touchdown. On the ensuing kickoff, Frank Minnifield returned the catch for a 89 yard Louisville touchdown and a 21-20 lead. After a Brian Howard interception, Ransom fumbled the ball on the 2 yard line, which was picked up by WR Mike Jones who took it in for a 26-21 lead. Ransom passed to Golden Tate for the two-point conversion and a 28-21 halftime advantage.

In the 3rd quarter Ransom continued his aerial assault, as he hit WR Golden Tate with a 48 yard touchdown. The Cardinal QB was sacked by a fierce tackle and Dwanye Roberts recovered at the 9 yard line, TSU scored as Ransom hit TE Kenneth Gardner for a 42-28 margin. The Cardinals got a safety with a minute and 28 seconds to go, making the final margin TSU 42-Louisville 30.

The Tigers continued their 8 game winning streak last Saturday as they scored a 43-0 victory over Central State University. Brian Ransom passed 304 yards on the second possession, they scored on a Morris Harris 5 yard run. Big Blue scored on their next possession as Jackie Coffee scored from 3 yards out. Just before the half the Tigers scored two more points as DE William Horton tackled Central's QB Jefferson, in the end zone.

In the third quarter TSU increased their lead as Ransom hit WR Mike Jones on a 43 yard TD strike. Coffee scored his second TD on a 13 yard run. RB Larry Kinnebrew scored late in the same period on a 3 yard run. In the final quarter, DB Gary Davis intercepted his second pass of the ball game and rambled 90 yards for the final score 43-0.

TSU STOPS GRAMBLING FOR A 14-10 HOMECOMING WIN

The Tigers won their fourth game of the season before the largest crowd in the history of TSU, at Vanderbilt's new stadium. The 34,368 witnessed a defensive gem put together by Tiger defensive Coach Bill Thomas, whose Tigers allowed the visitors only 161 yards total offense. Thomas' CATS cut down the explosive G-Men, time and time again with interceptions, fumble recoveries, and QB sacks to dismantle Eddie Robinson's Tigers, and add another win to Head Coach John Merritt's lifetime record which now stands at 210 wins, 62 losses and 9 ties. The G-Men also played a defensive minded game as they limited TSU to 219 yards total offense but the Tigers made the best of the offense that they could and scored off two drives that resulted in points.

TSU got on the scoreboard first as QB Ransom hit WR Golden Tate on a 3 yard TD strike in the first period. The TSU defense limited the G-Men to a mere 24 yards total offense for the first half.

In the third quarter the Tigers put together a 79 yard march, culminated by a 1 yard TD by RB Ronald Holland, Larry Watkins kicked the point after and the Tigers lead 14-0. The G-men scored on an 49 yard TD, with only six seconds on the clock. The G-Men on their next possession had a big 31 yard run that made Merritt's defensive unit sharpen-up their claws and stopped the G-Men from scoring a touchdown, as they settled for a 40 yard field goal that closed the gap to 14-10, which stood until the end.

“The Hay is in the Barn . . . Almost”

“Big” John Merritt, on doctors orders was forced to watch most of his team’s games from a chair on the sidelines.

After an opening season loss to Jackson State, the slogan made popular by TSU’s head coach “Big” John Merritt was nearly a reality. With seven weeks of play behind them, the tigers owned a 6-1 record with four games to go. Junior Quarterback Brian Ransom was listed in the top five among division I-AA passers with 14 touchdown passes and over 1,700 yards through the air. The Big Blue football team was ranked number 7 nationally in I-AA with a homecoming victory over number five ranked Grambling to its credit. The number seven ranking was brought about after athletic officials cleared up certain eligibility requirements with the NCAA. The seventh week of the season was also TSU’s first appearance of the season in the national rankings.

However, as the TSU Football Odyssey continued, ill winds from the North and South of Nashville, made what appeared to be calm waters a turbulent route to sail. Consequently, Big John was forced to postpone closing the lock on his mythical barn door with its mythical hay inside. Efforts were made by some local news media and two grid iron victims to discredit the traditional and historical TSU football program.

After being soundly thrashed by TSU, 42-30 and 49-11 the University of Louisville (I-A) and Nichols St. University (I-AA) respectively used the local news media to publicly charge TSU of unsportsmanlike conduct, taunting of opposing coaching and players, and playing an undisciplined brand of football. There were also reports that the coaches from both schools would refuse to schedule TSU for future games.

So once again, Big John, with the door still unlocked and doing most of his coaching from Westside Hospital room 204 and a chair on the sideline, was forced to defend his beloved TSU, players, and coaches and as, he put it, with “intellectual honesty”.
