President Glenda Glover, the 8th university president and first woman president.

Tennessee State

Tennessee State University was founded in 1912. This year we celebrated 105 years of academics, accolades, and activists.

From the revitalization of the student center to the Wilson protest. We had a lot of change occur this year, but there is always more triumphs than struggle in the land of golden sunshine.

SERVE

A woman with long, curly hair, wearing blue scrubs and a name tag, stands in a classroom, gesturing with her hands while presenting. In the foreground, the back of a student's head wearing a floral headwrap is visible. To the right, another student is partially visible. The classroom has a whiteboard and a desk with various items on it.

College Of

Engineering

Won 2017 HBCU Digest best STEM Program

Starting the year off with a bang by winning the HBCU Best STEM Program along with the Aristocrat of Bands. The College of Engineering has had an eventful year sending students to national conventions, working on special projects and like all the colleges at our university, continuously encouraging their students to achieve their dreams.

College of Engineering, Dean Hargrove, holds his award standing next to the TSU Band director who also received an award at the HBCU Digest awards.

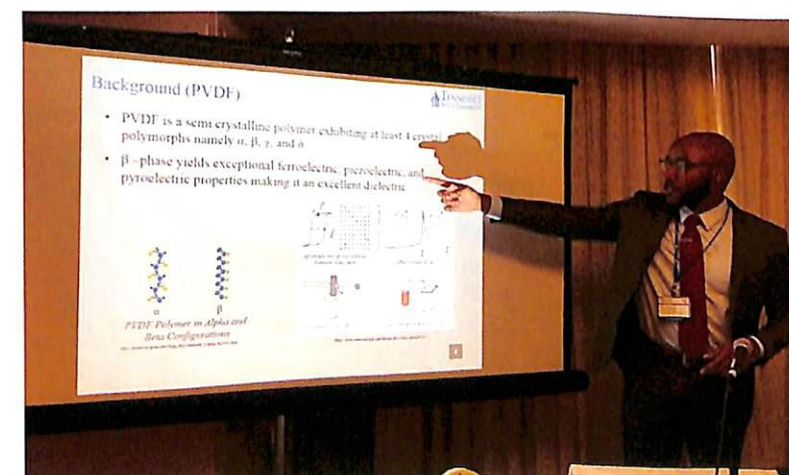

First time the National Science Foundation has had a workshop hosted at TSU in February 2018.

STUDENT TESTIMONIAL

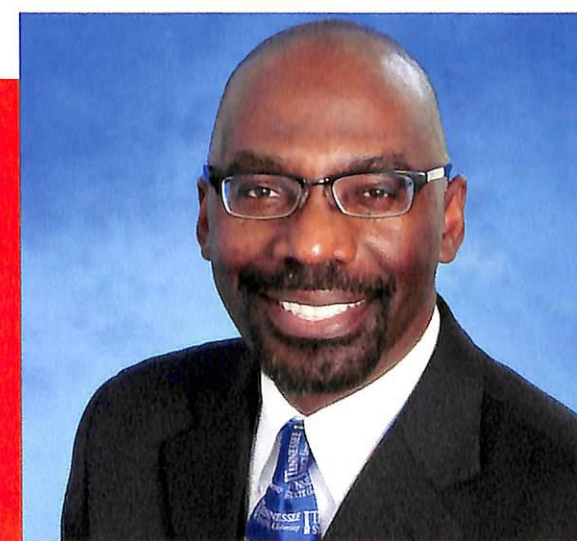

I am blessed to have had even half of the opportunities the engineering program at TSU has afforded me, my favorite one is being able to attend the TLSAMP conference every year.

Dwight Pullen, Senior Engineering Major

1 Computer Science major, Emmanuel Gyang, interviews with Microsoft.

2 TSU Engineering majors design a special transport vehicle for the US Air Force special operations forces, 3 Mechanical Engineering Major Robert, wins first place in his oral presentation at a national conference held in Washington DC.

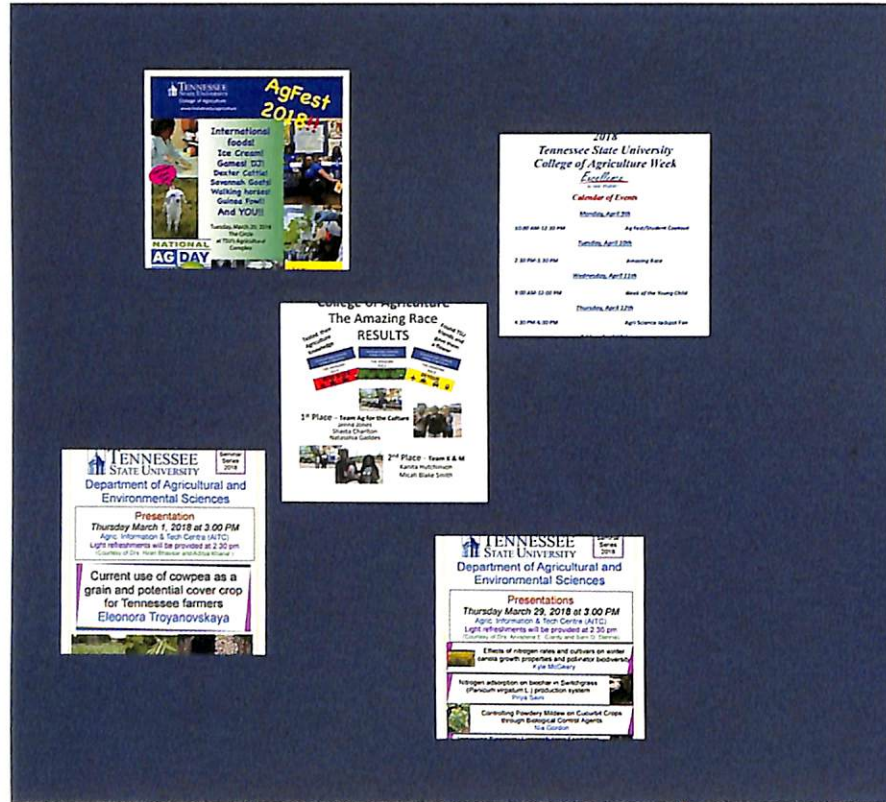

Dean Keith Hargrove.

He received his BS in Mechanical Engineering, MS from the Missouri State University of science and Technology as a GEM Fellow and the PhD from the University of Iowa as a CIC fellow

THINK.

College of Agriculture, Human and Natural Science

One of the most interactive colleges in the university, always traveling and winning conferences, doing groundbreaking research and participating yearly in prestigious fellowships. The college of agriculture is one of our oldest programs since TSU used to be knows as an A&I institution before the name change to Tennessee State University.

Agricultural students share their research at a multitude of fairs during the school year.

The Black Film Series Spring 2018 Interrogating Racism and Representation in Education

Join us as we explore how these films critique matters of racism, inclusion, and diversity in institutional life. After each screening, we will discuss how these critically acclaimed films provide insight into African American experiences with academia.

When: Feb. 16 (Dope)
Mar. 23 (Higher Learning)
Apr. 20 (School Daze)

Time: 10 a.m.

Where: Humanities Building, Poag Auditorium

This program is sponsored by Languages, Literature and Philosophy (LLP); History, Political Science, Geography, and Africana Studies (HPGA); Women's Studies and the I Want to Write Initiative. Organizers for the event include Dr. Keisha Brown, Dr. K. T. Ewing, Dr. Jennifer Hayes, and Dr. Michelle Pinkard.

Student Gov.

The Legendary 77th administration of student Government led by President JerMilton Woods had a lot going on.

From getting straws back into the cafeteria to going through a lot of administration changes, these student leaders went through so much in so little time.

"How you do anything is how you do everything" - President Woods

H.O.D

The House of Delegates

This section of Student Government consist of the TOP 4, The Royal Court, Representatives At Large and all Classification President's, VP's, Treasurer's, and Secretaries.

The largest branch of government, the students have to vote you in, in order for you to be a part of this branch or already voted in members will appoint to fill up their staffs.

Students Have Fun together but not as much as the staff.

1) SGA House members gather at a home game

2) Student activity office members pose for a selfie.

3) THEIR TEAM WINS THE CHALLENGE DURING THE ANNUAL FED EX TRIP DURING THE SOUTHERN HERITAGE CLASSIC TRIP

"TEN TOES IN, NOT FIVE"-WOODS

PRESIDENT JERMILTON WOODS always started off his speeches saying, I know that i am short- I have been short all my life, before delivering his message. Under the Legendary 77th administration the students fought to keep straws in the cafeteria, attempted to increase participation in sports events and marched with the Freshmen of Wilson hall when they underwent a temporary Water Crisis.

STUDENT COURT (THE FOURTH BRANCH)

Student Court is on its second year after being inducted into SGA. This is 7 of the 9 student judges after their induction ceremony. The student court looks at conduct cases and worked with the TSU Police department before making their punishment suggestions, giving the students their constitutional right of being rightfully judged by their peers.
