When are admissions decisions made?

The School of Graduate Studies and Research accepts new students for fall, spring and summer terms (some programs have special admission deadlines, see Application Deadlines). We recommend that applicants' packages be complete no later than 60 days prior to the beginning of the term in which they seek admission. Once the application package is complete, it is forwarded to the academic department where the admission recommendation is made. In cases where individuals apply for non-degree admission, the Graduate School will make the admission decision shortly after a complete application packet is received.

What are the admission deadlines?

All documents must be received by

July 1	Fall Admission
November 1	Spring Admission
April 1	Summer Admission

Do I need a TSU ID card?

A TSU ID card is essential. It not only identifies you as a TSU student, it gives you access to libraries and other university services. See the Student ID card page for details.
