

STAFF SENATE SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

The Staff Senate is an organization which serves as a representative body of the staff employees of Tennessee State University and for the exchange of information between the University's administration and staff employees. For years, Staff Senate has awarded scholarships to one or more eligible TSU support staff members. Priority will be given to applicants who have not previously received the scholarship. TSU's Staff Senate Scholarship Committee reserves the right to request proof of a passing grade (i.e., A, B, or C) from scholarship recipients. The number of scholarships and the amount awarded will be determined by the availability of funds.

Purpose: To promote and encourage staff development through higher education at Tennessee State University.

Eligibility Criteria:

- TSU undergraduate or graduate, degree seeking student
- Full-time staff employee of Tennessee State University
- Cumulative GPA of 2.5 after completion of at least one semester of coursework
- Must be in good academic standing
- Submit completed application (attached)
- Proof of current enrollment in courses at Tennessee State University, excluding non-credit correspondence courses, short courses, seminars, workshops, institutes, or any other non-credit courses
- Submit essay in .pdf format

Selection Process: Application materials are due by 5 p. m. on Wednesday, December 6, 2017. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered. The Scholarship Committee will determine the recipient(s) of these scholarships. If the recipient of the scholarship is no longer an employee, no longer a student, or does not meet the GPA requirements, the scholarship will be rescinded.

Deadline: Wednesday, December 6, 2017
