GRANT NUMBER HRD-0802540

Lolade Akinola graduated from Tennessee State University in 2008 with the B.S. degree Chemistry. Currently, Lolade is pursuing the M.S. degree in Environmental Engineering at Tennessee State University.

Alana Antoine graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. She is currently a research associate in the Department of Physiology and Neuroscience Institute at the University of Tennessee Health Science Center in Memphis.

Ronald Alexander graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Mathematics. Currently, he is attending the University of Memphis pursuing a M.S. degree in Statistics and he is employed as an adjunct faculty member at LeMoyne-Owen College.

Nicola Asgill graduated from Vanderbilt University with a Bachelor of Engineering in Biomedical Engineering in 2007 and Master of Science in, Biomedical Engineering in 2008. Currently, Nicola works at ManoCap.

Robert Amponsah graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.E. degree in Electrical Engineering in 2006. Robert graduated with a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering from University of Rochester and is currently a MBA candidate at Texas A&M University.

Tamara Augustine graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. Currently, Tamara is a third year medical student at Ross University in Costa Rica. She spent the summer of 2011 conducting family medicine and internal medicine in Baltimore and in Washington, D.C.

Jamie Anderson graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering. She is currently pursuing the Ph.D. degree in Nuclear Engineering at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Mbogne Ba graduated from the University of Memphis in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, Mbogne is employed as an engineer for General Mills.

Quincy Beasley graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Biomedical Engineering. Currently, he is pursuing the M.S. degree in Biomedical Engineering at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Crystal Boston graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2008 with the B.S. degree Computer Science. Crystal is currently pursuing the Ph.D. degree in Biomedical Informatics at IUPUI in Indianapolis, Indiana where she is a Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) Scholar.

Charreau Bell graduated from Vanderbilt with a double major in Electrical Engineering and Biomedical Engineering in 2009. Currently, she is attending Clemson University pursuing a Ph.D. degree in Electrical Engineering.

Robert Boxie graduated from Vanderbilt with a Bachelor of Engineering degree in Chemical Engineering in 2002. In 2007, he received a J.D. degree from Harvard Law School. Currently, Robert is an Associate with Vinson and Elkins Law Practice.

Kevina Bland graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010, magna cum laude, with the B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. Currently, Kevina is a Drilling Engineer with Chevron.

Erica Bozeman graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Biomedical Engineering in 2007. Currently, Erica is pursuing a degree in PhD in Immunology at Emory University.

Rikita Bonner graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Architectural Engineering. Rikita currently is enrolled as a M.S. student in Architectural Engineering at the University of Miami.

Evan Burton, III graduated from the University of Memphis in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, Evan works as a systems engineer for Tennessee Valley Authority.

Marcella Carnes graduated from Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Architectural Engineering. Currently, Marcella attends Florida A&M University where she is completing the requirements for the M.S. degree in Civil Engineering with a concentration in Structures.

Trehon Cockrell-Coleman graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Computer Science. He was recruited in September of 2009 and is currently employed at Raytheon Missile Systems Company, in Tucson Arizona as a Software Engineer.

Leonela Carriedo graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Plant Biology. Leonela is currently attending the University of California at Davis where she is working toward her Master of Science in Plant Biology.

Dominique Cooper graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering. Currently, she serves as a Systems Engineer at Naval Surface Warfare Center.

Justine Carter graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Biomedical Engineering in 2003. She graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a Master's degree in Food Science in 2007. Currently Justine works at Ralcorp Holdings as a Food Scientist.

Jarred Cox graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering. Currently, he serves as a Maintenance Planner at Pepsi Beverages Company Located in Nashville, TN.

Brandon Cobb graduated from Tennessee State University in 2008 with a B.S. degree in Architectural Engineering and Masters in Engineering with a concentration in Environmental Engineering from Tennessee State University in 2010. He is now employed as a hydrologist with the US Geological Survey.

LaTasha Cox graduated from Tennessee State University in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. LaTasha currently works for Lockheed Martin Aeronautics Company as a Systems Security Engineer. She plans to pursue her M.S and Ph.D. degrees.

Warren Dean, V. graduated from Tennessee State University in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Biological Sciences, with minors in Business and Chemistry. He recently completed a teacher training institute in Cleveland, Mississippi through Teach for America (TFA).

Brian Dotson graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2006 with the B.S. degree in Computer Science. Currently, Brian is employed with the IT Department at FedEx.

Raymond Dennis III graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in May 2011 with the B.S. degree in Engineering Technology. Currently, Raymond is a Production Engineer at Aerowing, Inc. where he is responsible for manufacturing aircraft wing protection equipment.

Lauren Easley graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry/Science. Currently, Lauren is employed at Baptist Hospital in Nashville, TN as a Physical Therapy Technician. In January of 2012, Lauren will attend Washington University as a graduate student in Physical Therapy.

Lanre Dina graduated from the University of Memphis in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Civil Engineering, and a Masters of Business Administration degree. Currently, Lanre works for CH2M Hill as an engineer.

Kyle Ellis graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Construction Management/Engineering Technology. Kyle is the first Native American graduate of the Middle Tennessee State University affiliate. Currently, Kyle is serving as the owner/operator of his own construction company.

Amber Dorsey graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2010 with B.S. degrees in Science and Public Health. Currently, Amber is employed by Le Bonheur Children's Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee as the Scheduler for Le Bonheur Outpatient Clinics.

Eejay Enekwa graduated from Middle Tennessee State University with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. Currently, Eejay is a fourth year doctoral pharmacy student at the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy. She will graduate with her PharmD degree in May of 2012.

Trenton Ensley graduated from the University of Memphis in 2006 with the B.S. in Mathematics and Physics, and a M.S. degree in Optics from the University of Central Florida in 2009. Currently, Trenton is working towards a doctorate in Optics at the University of Central Florida.

Joey Figueroa graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2011 with the B.S. in Microbiology. Currently, Joey is working at the Mid-State Alliance Animal Clinic as an animal technician.

Kevin Fair earned the B.S. degree in Computer Science from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2008. Currently, he is a Desktop Solutions Technician with the Community Economic Development Association (CEDA) of Cook County, Chicago, IL and Owner of "I Play Games!", a video game promotions company.

Nathaniel Flemming graduated from the University of Memphis in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Computer Engineering Technology. Currently, Nathaniel is employed with the Internal Revenue Service as an Information Specialist.

Sydney Fears graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Aerospace Engineering. Currently, he is pursuing the M.B.A. degree at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Reginald Floyd graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering, at the top of his graduating class with a 4.0 GPA. He is currently employed as an Aerospace Engineer with the US Air Force at Arnold AFB in Tullahoma, TN while pursuing his Masters in Mechanical Engineering at the UT Space Institute.

James Fells graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with a B.S. degree in Chemistry, a M.S. degree in Chemistry in 2007, and a Ph.D. in Chemistry in 2009 from the University of Memphis. Currently, Dr. Fells is a post-doctoral fellow at The University of Tennessee Health Science Center.

Gelayne Gales graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with the B.S. in Chemistry, and a M.S. degree in Chemistry from the University of Memphis in 2007. Currently, Gelayne is working for Merck and Company.

Justin Glenn graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Micro Cell Biology in 2009. Currently, Justin is a graduate student at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine.

Micah Hall graduated from the University of Memphis in 2006 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, Micah is working towards a Ph.D. degree in Polymer Engineering from California Polytechnic Institute.

Julius Gunn graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. Currently, he is and Experimental Test and Assembly Engineer at RRC in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Benjamin Hamilton graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with a B.S. in Electrical Engineering, and a M.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Memphis in 2007.

Jessica Haley graduated from Vanderbilt School of Engineering with a Bachelor of Chemical Engineering Degree and a Master's degree in Environmental Engineering in May 2010. Currently, Jessica is enrolled as a PhD candidate in Chemical Engineering at Vanderbilt.

Travelius Harris graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. Currently, he serves as a Field Service Engineer at Westinghouse Electric Company in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Jason Hall graduated from the University of Memphis in 2008 with a B.S. degree in Computer Science. Currently, Jason works as a software engineer with IBM.

Shantel Higgins graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Electrical Engineering in 2004. She attended Texas A & M, where she received a Bridge to the Doctorate Fellowship. Currently, Shantel works at Texas Instruments as a Sales Engineer.

Kellee Hill graduated from Tennessee State University in 2006 with the B.S. degrees in Biology and Chemistry and again in 2008 with the M.S. in Agricultural Science. Currently she is an educator with Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools and working on her doctoral degree.

Hillary Ashley Holback graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Chemical Engineering. Currently, she is attending Purdue University pursuing a Pharmacy degree.

Fredrick Hilliard graduated from Vanderbilt University with a Bachelor of Engineering in Biomedical Engineering in 2007 and a Master of Science in Biomedical Engineering 2009. He graduated from the University of Texas with an MBA. Currently, Frederick is the Executive VP at MBA Healthcare Association.

Oba Hollie graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with a B.S. degree in Chemistry, and a M.D. degree from Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Hollie is Board Certified in Internal Medicine and he is employed with Walker Comprehensive Health Center in Nashville, Tennessee.

Tiffany Hines Hardison graduated from Tennessee State University in 2005 with the B.S. degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering and a M.S. in Environmental Engineering in 2007. Tiffany currently works for U.S. Department of Labor for the Occupational Safety and Health Administration as a Safety Engineer in Nashville, TN.

Shawnda Hollie graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with a B.S. Chemistry, and a M.D. degree from Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tennessee. Dr. Hollie is Board Certified in Internal Medicine. She is employed with the Nashville Medical Group.

Shantell Hinton graduated from Vanderbilt University in 2006 with a degree in Electrical Engineering. She graduated from Colorado State University with a Master of Science in Electrical Engineering and Robotics in 2008 where she received a Bridge to the Doctorate Fellowship. Currently, Shantell is a Process Controls Engineer at Evergreen Packaging.

Tracy Holmes graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Chemical Engineering in 2005. Currently, he is pursuing a PhD in Chemical Engineering at Stanford University.

Alette Howard graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Chemical Engineering in 2004. She attended Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, TN. Currently, Alette works as an Optometrist at the Insight Vision Center LLC.

Amber Johnson received the B.S. degree in Computer Science from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2011. Currently Amber is attending Jackson State University pursuing the M.S. degree in Computer Science. At JSU, Amber is actively involved with the LSMAMP program.

Christopher Howell graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering, a M.S. degree in Electrical Engineering in 2007 from the University of Memphis, and a Ph.D. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Memphis. Currently, Dr. Howell works the U.S. Army Night Vision and Electronics Sensors Directorate.

Jameka Johnson graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering. Currently she is completing the M.S. degree at Florida A & M University in Industrial Engineering with a specialization in Engineering Management.

Natalie Jackson graduated from Tennessee State University in 2009 summa cum laude with the B.S. degree in Biology and a minor in Chemistry. Currently she is at The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the Doctor of Dental Surgery program.

Leah Johnson graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Biology. She went on to earn the M.S. in Nursing and F.N.P. (Family Health Nurse Practitioner) graduate degrees from Purdue University-Calumet. Currently, Leah is a employed as a Registered Nurse at Methodist Hospital in Gary, Indiana.

Marcus Jennings graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry, and a Master's in Public Health (MPH) in 2009 from Tulane University. Currently, Marcus is studying to become a medical doctor at the University Of Tennessee School of Medicine in Memphis.

Keith Jones graduated from the University of Memphis in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. Currently, Keith is pursuing the Doctorate of Pharmacy (PharmD) at the University of Tennessee and he works as a pharmacy intern at Kroger's in Memphis, Tennessee.

Xavier Jones graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Computer Engineering. Currently, he serves as an Associate Analyst at Johnson & Johnson in Philadelphia, PA.

Alexander Lang graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering. Currently, Alexander is pursuing the M.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Chatoria Kent graduated in 2004 from Middle Tennessee State University with the B.S. degree in Biology and a M.S. degree in Science/Professional Science in 2007. Presently, she teaches high school Biology part time while working toward a Ph.D. in Biological Education.

Johnathan Lindsey graduated from Vanderbilt University in 2006 with a degree in Computer Engineering. He graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a Master's degree in Engineering Policy. Johnathan graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in May 2011.

Lashun King Thomas graduated from Tennessee State University in 2005 with the B.S. degree in Civil Engineering. She recently received the Ph.D. degree in Civil Engineering from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University (Virginia Tech) in 2011. Currently, Lashun is a post-doctoral fellow in Civil and Environmental Engineering at Syracuse University.

Jasmine Locklin graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Biology and a minor in Chemistry. She is currently enrolled as a first year medical student at Morehouse School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia with interests in pursuing a career in pediatric medicine.

Terrance Knowlton graduated from the University of Memphis in 2008 with a B.S. degree in Computer and Electrical Engineering. Currently, Terrance works as an engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers.

Jean Mahoro graduated from the University of Memphis in 2009 with a B.S. in Computer Engineering. Currently, Jean is employed with Kaz Incorporated as a Quality Engineer.

Tiffany McDavid graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Biomedical & Mechanical Engineering. Currently, she works as an engineer for the Eaton Corporation located in Chicago, IL.

Nikolas Nordendale graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.E. in Civil Engineering in 2009. He graduated from Vanderbilt with a M.S. in Civil Engineering in 2010. Currently, Nikolas is pursuing a PhD in Civil Engineering at Vanderbilt University.

Trenika Moore graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.E. in Biomedical Engineering in 2009. She will graduate from the University of Alabama at Birmingham, with a M.S. in Biomedical Engineering in 2012.

Stefan Nwandu-Vincent graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Biomedical Engineering. Currently, he is pursuing the Ph.D. degree in Biomedical Engineering at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Kenneth Moten graduated from the University of Memphis in 2006 with a B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, Kenneth works as an engineer for the Department of Defense.

Stephanie Odom graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Biomedical Engineering. Currently, she serves as a Process Engineer at Kimberly Clark Corporation located in Charlotte, NC.

Sammy Ndirangu graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Computer Science. Currently, he is a Tech Support Software Engineer at Triton Systems, Inc. in Long Beach, Mississippi.

Lorenzo Olive graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Biochemistry. Currently, Lorenzo is working as a research technician at Vanderbilt University, and will enter medical school at in the Fall 2011.

Elvin O'Neal II graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2011 with the B.S. degree in Mechanical Engineering. Currently, Elvin serves as an Operations Excellence Specialist at Akzo Nobel located in Atlanta, GA.

Tiffany Palmer graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.E. in Chemical Engineering in 2009. Currently, Tiffany works as a Chemical Engineer and Intellectual Property Analyst in the US Patent and Trademark Office.

Henry Onyebueke graduated from the University of Memphis in 2008 with a B.S. degree in Biology, and a Master's of Business Administration degree from Tennessee State University in 2010.

Tristan Parker graduated in 2008 from LeMoyne-Owen College with the B.S. degree Biology. She is currently employed with PMC Biogenix in Memphis, Tennessee.

Molade Osibodu graduated from the University of Memphis in 2006 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering, and a Master's degree in Applied Mathematics from University of Central Arkansas. She is currently working towards a Ph.D. degree in Mathematics Education from the University of Georgia.

David DeAndre Phinnessee graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering. Currently, he serves as a Plant Industrial Engineer at Johnson Controls Automotive in Atlanta, GA.

Tunde Osinolye graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Biochemistry. Currently, Tunde is pursuing the M.S. degree in Chemistry at Middle Tennessee State University and will graduate in May of 2012. His plan is to attend medical school.

Timothy Reed graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering. Currently, he is pursuing the M.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Sir Walter L. Richardson graduated from the University of Memphis in 2007 with a B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, he is working towards a M.S. degree in Electrical Engineering at the University of Memphis.

Victor Roland graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering. Currently, Victor is a M.S. candidate in Civil and Environmental Engineering at Tennessee State University and he plans to pursue a Ph.D. in environmental engineering and water resources.

Marlon Ridley graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with the B.S. degree Electrical Engineering, and a M.S. degree in Physics in 2008 from the University of Memphis. Currently, Marlon works as a senior consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton.

Arielle Ross graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. Arielle is currently a fourth-year pharmacy student at the University of Tennessee College of Pharmacy. She will graduate with her PharmD degree in May of 2012.

Tina Rhodes graduated from LeMoyne-Owen College in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Biology. Tina is currently employed as a Quality Assurance Microbiologist at Lallemand in Memphis, Tennessee.

Eugene Seibert graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Industrial Technology. Currently, Eugene is employed at Johnson Controls where he assists with criteria for the new Infinity car seat. Eugene is also working toward earning his Six Sigma Black Belt.

Brittnee Robinson graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, Brittnee serves as an Analyst at Accenture located in Washington, D.C.

Antonio Silas graduated from Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Agricultural Sciences. He is currently completing the M.S. degree in Agricultural and Extension Education at Pennsylvania State University. Antonio recently became employed with the National Institute of Food and Agriculture.

Elly Sinkala graduated from Vanderbilt University with a B.E. in Biomedical Engineering in 2008. Currently, Ms. Sinkala is attending the University of Illinois at Chicago, where she received a Bridge to the Doctorate Fellowship to pursue a PhD in Biomedical Engineering.

Leon D. Tillman graduated from Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Agricultural Sciences. Currently, Leon is a Soil Conservationist with the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS). He also is pursuing a M.S. in Natural Resource Management at the University of Tennessee-Martin.

Tierra Small graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry and minor in Biology. Currently Tierra is an Associate Scientist at Pharmaceutical Product Development (PPD), Inc. in Richmond, VA and is enrolled in the M.S. Biotechnology program at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C

Crisanto Torres graduated from Tennessee State University in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Biological Sciences with a concentration in Cell and Molecular Biology. Currently, he is a fourth year medical student at the University of Tennessee. Upon graduation in May 2012, he will begin a surgical residency.

Kevin Taylor, Jr., graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Nuclear Engineering. Currently, he serves as a Nuclear Evaluator at INPO located in Houston, TX.

Maurice Tucker graduated from the University of Memphis in 2005 with a B.S. degree in Chemistry, and a Doctorate in Chiropractics degree in 2007 from Parker College of Chiropractic Medicine. Dr. Tucker currently owns and operates his own clinic and is the official chiropractor for the Memphis Redbirds.

Brandis Thompson graduated from the University of Memphis in 2006 with a B.S. degree in Biology. Currently, Brandis is working towards a M.S. degree in Nursing Anesthesia at Union University and she is employed with the MED (the Regional Medical Center) in Memphis, Tennessee as a nurse.

Micah D. Turner graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2008 with the B.S. degree in Civil Engineering. She received the M.S. degree in Civil Engineering in 2009 from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

Sebastine Ujereh graduated from Vanderbilt University in 2004 with a B.E. in Mechanical Engineering. He graduated from Purdue University with a M.E. in Mechanical Engineering in 2006. Currently, Sebastine works at Schlumberger as a Mechanical Engineer.

Trevor Williams graduated from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering. Currently, he serves as a Marketing Analyst at Belden Inc. located in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania.

Ernest Washington graduated from the University of Memphis in 2007 with the B.S. degree in Engineering Technology. Currently, he is working toward a master's degree in engineering and he is a naval officer stationed in California.

Larry Wilson, III graduated from Middle Tennessee State University in 2009 with the B.S. degree in Chemistry. Currently Larry is employed at St. Jude Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee.

Karla Ward graduated from Tennessee State University in 2010 with B.S. degrees in Physics and Chemistry. Currently, she is enrolled in a Ph.D. program in Engineering Physics/Nuclear Engineering at the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Roneisha Worthy-Graham graduated from Tennessee State University with a B.S. degree in Civil and Environmental Engineering and a Master of Engineering in Environmental Engineering. Roneisha is employed with the Consortium for Risk Evaluation and Stakeholder Participation and a Ph.D. candidate.

Lutalo Webb graduated from Vanderbilt University with a degree in Electrical Engineering in May 2009. Currently, Lutalo is pursuing his PhD in Electrical Engineering at Purdue University.

Roberto Young graduated from the University of Memphis in 2003 with the B.S. degree in Computer Engineering, and a Masters of Business Administration degree in 2007 from the Harvard School of Business.
