GUIDELINES FOR COMPLETING POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT FORM

1. When Position Title is shown, indicate the specific position for which you are recruiting. You will be able to staff only the position that is shown on the announcement form.
2. Where Department is shown; care should be taken in indicating the correct department.
3. In the section entitled Position Summary, you should limit your summary to essential duties and responsibilities. An announcement is not a position description and cannot be all inclusive.
4. Qualifications and Experience should list minimum qualifications and experience required to perform the responsibilities. This will not restrict you from selecting a person whose qualifications may exceed entry level. Generally, if the minimum qualification requires a bachelor's degree, several applicants will apply with a Master's degree or better.
5. Entry salary should be in accordance with the Classifications and Compensation plan for clerical and support positions. Exceptions to entry salaries can only be granted by the President.
6. Since most 1100 positions are budgeted at a specific level, care should be taken in assigning the top of the salary range. The top of the range should not exceed the budgeted amount.

Copies of each announcement form are available in the Office of Human Resources.
