

Without Walls Program

TSU's Business Incubation Center's Without Walls program provides individuals with access to almost all of the Center's system of services including entrepreneur resources, monthly training sessions and classes, networking opportunities, and much more.

Come and connect with a network of valuable guidance and resources. Learn what it takes to launch your entrepreneur spirit to the next level and achieve your goals.

Client Admission Procedure:

1. Make an appointment for an initial consultation and prescreening with the TSU Business Incubation Center Director. This will be an informal discussion about the business to determine the type(s) of assistance needed and available.
2. Review the information package, which includes the Client Handbook, resource assistance information, and the Member Application and supporting documents.
3. Complete the Without Walls Member Application and return to the TSU Business Incubation Center Director along with all requested supporting documents.
4. A committee will review the application for approval or rejection. The prospective client will be officially notified in writing of the decision.
