

Tennessee State University
College of Liberal Arts Teaching Awards
Nomination and Selection Process, 2024-2025
Awards and Criteria

The College of Liberal Arts will confer two awards at the end of the academic year recognizing members of its temporary and tenure-track/tenured faculty for excellence in teaching.

Each award carries a stipend of $500 in addition to an award certificate, which will be presented to recipients at the meeting of Liberal Arts faculty at the beginning of the 2025-2026 academic year.

The criteria for the teaching excellence recognized by the awards include active knowledge of the teaching field, course organization and management, engagement in the classroom or other learning environment, and effective promotion and assessment of student learning and achievement.

Eligibility

All full-time members of the Liberal Arts faculty teaching at least 9 semester hours per semester during the current academic year are eligible for consideration. Previously nominated faculty members are eligible, but a faculty member may only receive the award once within a three-year period.

Nomination and Selection Process

By April 7	The CoLA Faculty Awards Committee will announce the opening of the process for nominations, by students and faculty members, for the awards. Announcements will be published on the CoLA website, distributed by email, and posted in the principal buildings used by the College.
By April 18	Faculty members and students will submit the names of nominees to department chairs. Nominations may be made by email or by regular letter and should include, at minimum: (1) the name of the nominee, (2) the name of the person making the nomination, and (3) a supporting statement. Self-nominations will not be accepted.

By May 1	Department chairs and/or designated departmental faculty committees will select no more than one candidate for each award and forward supporting materials to the Chair of the CoLA Faculty Awards Committee. Supporting documentation for consideration for each award should include: (1) the candidate's curriculum vitae, (2) a statement of the candidate's teaching philosophy, and (3) a letter of recommendation from the department head or the chair of a designated departmental faculty committee.
By May 9	The CoLA Faculty Awards Committee will review materials submitted for candidates from the College's departments and make a recommendation for each award to the Dean of the College.
By May 31	The Dean will review the recommendations of the CLA Faculty Awards Committee and select and notify award recipients, who will be recognized during the meeting of the College faculty held at the beginning of the following academic year.