Associate Dean, School of Graduate and Professional Studies, Tennessee State University

Reported to the Dean of the School of Graduate & Professional Studies. Assisted the Dean in the overall management and daily operations of the school, including supervision of support staff, recruitment of students, and monitoring of academic standing of graduate students and strategic planning and institutional assessment matters.

Specific Duties

Assist the Dean in planning and managing Graduate Council meetings (agenda, minutes, communication with members and committee chairs)—planned and implemented orientations and workshops for graduate students.

Plan and implement Graduate School recruitment initiatives.

Assist the graduate dean in overseeing support staff.

Attend professional development conferences, seminars, and workshops.

Direct doctoral dissertation research and serve on dissertation committees.

Update all Graduate School Publications & Forms, including the Graduate Faculty Handbook, Graduate Assistant Handbook, the Graduate Catalog (Acalog in 2010), Graduate School Academic Calendar, and all Graduate School forms (available online)

Monitor the spending of graduate assistantship funds. Maintain graduate assistants' records and track budget allocations and expenditures throughout the fiscal year (state-funded, external grants, others)

Monitor and administer the disbursement of funds for the Tennessee Doctoral Scholars Program. The Tennessee Higher Education Commission (THEC) and Tennessee State University (TSU) fund this program, which is intended to support TSU minority doctoral scholars.

Plan fall and spring graduate student orientations. Coordinate event logistics with academic colleges and other essential units.

Conduct workshops for graduate students, including Thesis/Dissertation Writing workshops, Electronic Thesis/Dissertation Submission training and Avoiding Plagiarism workshop.

Monitor the academic progress of non-degree-seeking students, including their transition to degree programs.

Manage electronic submission of theses/dissertations and training (Electronic Thesis/Dissertation (ETD))

Manage the quality of theses/dissertations in compliance with the University/Graduate School's academic integrity standards.

Monitor completion of the Survey of Earned Doctorates (SED), an online survey administered by the National Science Foundation (NSF) to graduating Ph.D. Candidates. Report Survey of Earned Doctorates (SED) data to the (NSF) three times a year.

Monitor the academic standing of graduate students, especially those placed on probation and suspension.

Conducted and administered Graduate School Exit Surveys, including analyzing and synthesizing data each year.

Monitor the credentialing and evaluation of international transcripts and diplomas of applicants seeking graduate admission.

Update the content of the Graduate School website as appropriate.

Generate and analyze various reports, including applications, admissions, academic standing, graduation, etc. These reports provide trend data for improving office operations and making informed decisions.

Perform other duties as assigned by the Dean.

2014-2016

Dean (Interim), School of Graduate Studies and Research, Tennessee State University

As Dean (Interim), I reported to the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs.

Directed the operations of the unit. In this role, and with the guidance of the Graduate Council (an advisory body), I oversaw, developed, and implemented institutional policies related to the areas of graduate education, quality of graduate programs, certification of graduate faculty members, review of curriculum proposals, approval of thesis and dissertation research, monitor graduate student recruitment, admission, progression, retention, graduate assistantships, academic achievement, or degree completion, and more.

Specific responsibilities (as Dean)

Manage the daily operations of the School of Graduate & Professional Studies, including supervising and managing support staff.

Plan, coordinate, and evaluate the graduate school's strategic goals in accordance with the University's strategic plan.

Provide leadership and promote the development of graduate programs at the University.

Chair monthly meetings of the Graduate Council

Work with the Graduate Council to develop, implement, and evaluate academic policies governing graduate education at the University.

Establish and uphold standards and procedures for admission, supervision, and award of advanced degrees and graduate certificates.

Participate in bi-monthly meetings of the Dean's Council

Monitor student progress toward degree completion.

Liaise with academic colleges, departments, and other support units on all issues related to graduate student services.

Provide oversight and coordinate approval of the appointment and supervision of graduate assistants.

Promote and assist in the development and implementation of new graduate programs.

Coordinate with the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs on graduate student financial support and research matters.

Develop online and print materials for the promotion of graduate programs.

Prepare annual assessment reports for graduate studies and research indicating achievement of relevant learning outcomes.

Formulate, plan, and manage the budget of the School of Graduate & Professional Studies (operating and graduate assistants)

Advised non-degree-seeking graduate students.

Perform other duties as the Provost and Vice President of Academic Affairs assign.

Accomplishments as Dean

Spearheaded the successful implementation of an online electronic submission system for theses and dissertations at Tennessee State University.

In concert with the Graduate Council, improved processes for evaluating the credentials of faculty seeking graduate faculty membership. Updated policies governing graduate education and accelerated the approval process of course and program proposals.

Successfully spearheaded the revision of numerous publications (print and electronic) of the School of Graduate Studies and Research at Tennessee State University, which resulted in improved dissemination of graduate education information.

Successfully wrote the compliance report on graduate education at Tennessee State University for the 2010 reaffirmation of accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (Tennessee State University).

Oversaw the growth of graduate student enrollments (and FTEs) at Tennessee State University by over 10 percent between 2008 and 2011.

Evaluated the quality of over four hundred theses and dissertations prepared as partial requirements for advanced degrees (2008-2011).

Chaired the monthly meetings of the University Graduate Council, resulting in the improvement of numerous policies on graduate education.

Reviewed and recommended for approval proposals for graduate courses and degree programs, including eligibility of faculty for graduate faculty membership.

Secured additional funding for graduate assistantships, provided oversight of graduate assistants' appointments, and general administration of graduate assistantships.

Advocated for the advancement of graduate education by participating in university-wide processes, including strategic planning, budgeting, and facilities planning (which led to the relocation of the Graduate School's offices to a larger space).

Provided oversight of retention-related workshops for graduate students and recruitment of graduate students.

Served on various university administrative reviews and standing committees throughout the years.

Participated in professional development seminars and workshops for the Council of Graduate Schools (CGS), Council of Black Graduate Schools (CBGS), Council of Southern Graduate Schools (CSGS), and Tennessee Council of Graduate Schools (TCGS).
