

Course Name	Faculty Qualifications Needed	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
HIST 5010 Seminar in American History I	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	African-American Studies, European Studies, Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5020 Seminar in American History II	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	African-American Studies, European Studies, Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5110 Historical Methods	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	African-American Studies, European Studies, Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5240 History of Feminism	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	Philosophy, Geography, Sociology and Anthropology, Gender Studies, Communication and Language and Culture	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

HIST 5310 Recent United States History I	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	Philosophy, Sociology and Anthropology, Geography, American History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5320 Recent United States History II	Earned doctorate degree in History or a closely related discipline	Philosophy, Sociology and Anthropology, Geography, American History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5410 Seminar in European History I	Earned doctorate degree in History, World History, or a closely related discipline	European Studies, Geography, Classics, Communication Language and Culture,	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in European Studies, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5420 Seminar in European History II	Earned doctorate degree in History, World History, or a closely related discipline	European Studies, Geography, Classics, Communication Language and Culture,	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in European Studies, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

HIST 6510 Seminar in Latin-american History I	Earned doctorate degree in History, World History, or a closely related discipline	Latin American and Latino Studies, Geography, Sociology and Anthropology, Communication and Language and Culture	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Latin American and Latino Studies, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 6520 Seminar in Latin-american History II	Earned doctorate degree in History, World History, or a closely related discipline	Latin American and Latino Studies, Geography, Sociology and Anthropology, Communication and Language and Culture	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Latin American and Latino Studies, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5710 Seminar in African History I	Earned doctorate degree African Studies, History, or a closely related discipline	Sociology and Anthropology, World Hisotry, Demography Studies	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in African history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 5720 Seminar in African History II	Earned doctorate degree African Studies, History, or a closely related discipline	Sociology and Anthropology, World Hisotry, Demography Studies	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in African history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

HIST 5750 Vital Topics	Earned doctorate degree in Philosophy, History, Classics or a closely related discipline	European Studies, International Relations, Law	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 6710 Modern Africa: Political and Social History	Earned doctorate degree in African Studies, Political Science, History or a closely related discipline	African-American Studies, Demography Studies, Communication Language and Culture, World History, Sociology and Anthropology	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in African history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 6870 Afro-American Issues, 1775 to 1876	Earned doctorate degree in African-American Studies, History, Political Science or a closely related discipline	African Studies, American History, Sociology and Anthropology, World History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in African-American history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
HIST 6880 African-American Issues, 1877 To Present	Earned doctorate degree in African-American Studies, History, Political Science or a closely related discipline	African Studies, American History, Sociology and Anthropology, World History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in African-American history, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

GEOG 5010 Problems in Teaching Geography	Earned doctorate degree in History, Geography, or a closely related discipline	Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology and Anthropology, GIS Studies	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
GEOG 5030 Earth Science for Teachers	Earned doctorate degree in History, Geography, or a closely related discipline	Geography Education, Science Education, GIS Studies, Geology,	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography education, education, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
GEOG 5040 World Geography for Teachers	Earned doctorate degree in History, Geography, World History, or a closely related discipline	Geography Education, Science Education, GIS Studies, Geology	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography education, education, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
GEOG 5050 Europe: Physical and Cultural Landscapes	Earned doctorate degree in History, Geography, or a closely related discipline	GIS Studies, European Studies	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in European Studies, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

GEOG 5750 Directed Reading in Geography	Earned doctorate degree in History, Geography, or a closely related discipline	Geography Education, Geology	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography, education, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
POLI 5010 American Government and Politics	Earned doctorate degree in Political Science, or a closely related discipline	American History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in political science, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
POLI 5130 Research Methods	Earned doctorate degree in Political Science or a closely related discipline	History, Sociology and Anthropology,	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
POLI 5350 Seminar in Legislative Process	Earned doctorate degree in Political Science or a closely related discipline	Law, Government, History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in law, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.

POLI 5600 Seminar in Comparative Political Systems	Earned doctorate degree in Political Science or a closely related discipline	Law, International Relations, History	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in law, humanities and arts or relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in humanities related fields.
--	--	---------------------------------------	---