

Africana Studies
Course Name	Faculty Qualifications Needed	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
AFAS 2010 Introduction to Africana Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Africana Studies or History ; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 2020 Survey of Africa	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Africana Studies or History ; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 2030 African Diaspora: Cultures, Communities and Nations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Africana Studies or History ; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 2110 Cultural Anthropology of Africa	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Africana Studies or History ; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3000 African Male: Identity, Culture, and Expressions	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History, Africana Studies, Gender Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3050 African Female: Identity, Socialization, and Status	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History, Africana Studies, Gender Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3100 Psychological Impact of Enslavement and Colonization	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.

AFAS 3400 African Spiritual Philosophy I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3600 African Extended Family	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3620 The African-American Family	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3650 The African-American Community	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3800 African Spiritual Philosophy II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3950 The Great Debate: Martin Luther King, Jr., and Malcolm X	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3990 Field Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.

AFAS 4000 Political Economy of African Studies	Earned Master's or Doctorate degree in Africana Studies in the teaching discipline; or Master's or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Development Economics, Political Science, Economics, African History, International Development	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial academic or field-based experience in African political economy, development policy, or socio-economic systems. Demonstrated expertise in analyzing the impact of global political and economic systems on African infrastructure, health, education, and industrial development is essential. Experience working with African institutions, NGOs, or conducting fieldwork in Africa, as well as scholarly publications or applied research in African development or resource management, may also be considered.
AFAS 4120 Classical African Civilizations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or Africana Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 4600 Independent Studies and Research	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 3850 Caribbean Societies and Modernization	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History or World History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 4400 Special Topics in Africana Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in African Studies or History ; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.
AFAS 4320 Spiritual Empowerment-Transformation	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or Africana Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History or related fields.

AFAS 4900 Senior Project (LGBTQ Black Politics & Theory)	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History Gender Studies; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Sociology, Literature, Political Science, Anthropology, Economics, Art History, Music, Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in history or African Studies-related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in history or related fields.
Geography
Course Name	Faculty Qualifications Needed	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
GEOG 1010 World Regional Geography I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Human Geography, Biogeography, and Historical Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 1020 World Regional Geography II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Human Geography, Cartography, Biogeography, and Historical Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3010 Physical Geography I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Human Geography, Biogeography, and Historical Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3020 Physical Geography II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Human Geography, Biogeography, and Historical Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3100 Cartography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Human Geography, Biogeography, Cartography, and Historical Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3150 Online Studies in Geographic Information Systems	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Environmental Science, Urban Planning, Public Health, Geology, Cartography, Remote Sensing, Land Use Planning, Natural Resource Management, and Public Policy	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.

GEOG 3200 Geographic Information Systems Applications in Intelligence Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Cartography, Remote Sensing, Spatial Statistics, Geovisualization, Data Analysis, Computer Science, Geopolitics, Environmental Science, and Urban Planning	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3500 Weather and Climate	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Meteorology, Atmospheric Science, Climatology, Oceanography, Hydrology, Ecology, Physical Geography, Geology, Glaciology, Environmental Chemistry, and Physics	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3710 Geography of the United States and Canada	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3720 Geography of Mexico and the Caribbean	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 3730 Geography of South America	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4000 Geography of Latin America	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4100 Geography of Asia	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.

GEOG 4120 Geography of Africa	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4250 Historical Geography of the United States and Canada	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography or Global Studies in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geomorphology, Glaciology, Pedology, Hydrology, Climatology, Biogeography and Oceanography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4300 Social Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Sociology Demography, Urban Studies, Political Geography, Economic Geography, Development Geography, Cultural Geography, Environmental Geography, Historical Geography, and Gender Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4440 Cultural Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Anthropology, Historical Geography, Regional Geography, Political Geography, Population Geography, Economics, Sociology, and Linguistics.	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4640 Environmental Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Environmental Consultant, Ecology	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4650 Geospatial Issues in Environmental Security	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Geospatial Intelligence, Remote Sensing, Climate Security, Disaster Risk Reduction and Management, Agricultural Monitoring, Environmental Justice, Biodiversity and Ecosystem Conservation	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4700 Political Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Political Science, Urban Planning, and Cartography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.

GEOG 4750 Economic Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Economics, Political Science, History, Sociology, and Demography.	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4850 Urban Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Economic Geography, Cultural Geography, Population Geography, Historical Geography, Political Geography, Social Geography, Sociology, Anthropology, Urban Planning, and Health Geography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
GEOG 4990 Special Topics in Geography	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Geography in the teaching discipline; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Economic Geography, Cultural Geography, Political Geography, Urban Geography, Population Geography, Health Geography, Geomorphology, Geographic Information Science, Political Science, and Biogeography	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in geography or a related discipline, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in geography related fields.
History
Course Name	Faculty Qualifications Needed	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
HIST 1000 Global Culture in History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2050 World History I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, World History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2060 World History I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, World History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2010 American History I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 2020 American History II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2011 Honors American History I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2021 Honors American History II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2030 History of Tennessee	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2040 Introduction to Public History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2700 The African American Experience	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3010 Europe, 1648-1789	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3020 Europe, 1789-1871	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 3030 Europe, 1871-1945	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3040 Europe since 1945	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3050 History of Intelligence	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3100 American Women's History to 1890	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3110 American Women's History 1890 to the Present	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3185 Cooperative Education	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3186 Cooperative Education	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3200 History of Mexico	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 3310 Colonial and Revolutionary America	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3320 The Early Republic, 1789-1836	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3330 The Late Republic, 1836-1860	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3340 Civil War and Reconstruction	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3350 United States 1877 to 1920	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3360 United States 1920 to 1945	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3370 America Since 1945	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3380 The Cultural History of the United States	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 3500 History Workshop	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3630 History of Science and Technology	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3690 Economic History of the United States	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3710 Teaching of History and Social Science	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3840 Ancient History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3860 The Middle Ages and Renaissance	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3880 Renaissance and Reformation	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4210 Diplomatic History of the United States	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 4220 Diploma Master's History of the United States	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4240 History of Feminism	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Women and Gender Studies, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4250 American Social and Intellectual History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4260 American Social and Intellectual History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4320 Vital Topics in History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4325 Vital Topics in U. S. History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4326 Vital Topics in World History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4500 Senior Project	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 4510 Colonial Latin American History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4520 Contemporary Latin American History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4580 Public History Administration Internship	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4720 Student Teaching	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, Education, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4810 Asian Civilizations I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4820 Asian Civilizations II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4840 History and Literature of the British Empire	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4850 History of Africa I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 4860 History of Africa II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4880 Slavery and Slave Trades in Africa	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4890 Modern Africa, 1960-Present	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4910 Afro-American History I	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4920 Afro-American History II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4930 The Civil Rights Movements in the United States	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3000 Intro to Ethics in Public History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 2070 World History II	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 3120 Black Women's History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3680 Black Nashville	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3810 Modern Chinese History	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 3950 History of the Modern Middle East	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4000 History Seminar	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4100 America Behind Bars	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4110 Law and Society in Medieval England	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4225 The United States and the Middle East	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.

HIST 4226 World War I Global Perspectives	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
HIST 4230 Literature and History of Medieval England	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in History; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	History, American Studies, British Studies, Cultural Studies, African American Studies, Asian Studies, and similar disciplines	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in History, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in History.
Political Science
Course Name	Faculty Qualifications Needed	Related Disciplines	Acceptable Alternative Qualifications
POLI 1010 Introduction to Political Sciences	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 2010 American National Government	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 2200 Introduction to International Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 2220 State and Local Government	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 2700 Introduction to Intelligence Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3000 History of Political Philosophy	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3010 Contemporary Political Philosophy	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Philosophy, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3060 Model United Nations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3100 Research Methodology	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3150 Public Opinion and Voting Behavior	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 3600 Introduction to Comparative Government and Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3610 Comparative Asian Politics	Earned Master's or Doctorate degree in Political Science in the teaching discipline; or Master's or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Global/Regional Studies (e.g., East Asian or South Asian Studies), International Relations, Asian Studies	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial academic or professional experience in Asian political systems, comparative political analysis, or international diplomacy. Demonstrated expertise in political institutions, party systems, ideology, nationalism, and state-building in Asia is essential. Experience teaching or researching comparative government, publishing scholarly work on Asian politics, or participating in international policy programs focused on the region may also be considered.
POLI 3620 Comparative European Government	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3630 International Organizations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3650 International Relations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3670 American Foreign Policy	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 3680 Third World Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3690 Theoretical Approaches to International Relations	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3700 International Security Studies	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3910 Urban Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 3930 International Political Economy	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4055-4059 Special Topics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 4200 Legislative Process	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4210 Judicial Process	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4220 Parties and Elections	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4230 The Presidency	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4240 Government, Public Opinion, and the Press	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4300 Introduction to American Law	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 4310 Constitutional Law: The Federal Government and Separation of Powers	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4320 Constitutional Law: The Bill of Rights	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4340 Legal Research and Writing	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4350 International Law	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4360 Middle East Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4370 Politics of Arms Control	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 4400 Introduction to Public Administration	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Public Policy, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4460 Intergovernmental Relations and Regionalism	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4480 Internship	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4500 Senior Project	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4510 Independent Study	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4700 U.S. National Security Policy	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.

POLI 4920 Black Politics	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.
POLI 4330 Gender, Sexuality, and U.S. Law	Earned Masters or Doctorate degree in Political Science; or Masters or Doctorate degree with a concentration in the teaching discipline with at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline.	Government, Policy, International Relations, Law, Public Administration, Economics, History, and International Affairs	Acceptable alternative qualifications include substantial professional experience (e.g., publications, awards) in Political Science or related fields, relevant professional licensure/certifications, and notable scholarly work such as published articles or conference presentations in Political Science or related fields.