C.V. SUMMARY

Abu N. M. Wahid is a professor of economics at Tennessee State University and Managing Editor of the Journal of Developing Areas (the JDA). He was instrumental in getting the JDA relocated to Tennessee State University (TSU) from Western Illinois University in 2001. Up until now, he has published SIX books as author, editor, and co-editor. His book (Ed) Frontiers of Economics: Nobel Laureates of the Twentieth Century, has been quite popular and acquired by many major libraries around the world. His first book (Ed) The Grameen Bank: Poverty Relief in Bangladesh is a widely cited work and was used as a text on microlending at Hartwick College of New York. In addition, Dr. Wahid made nearly 60 publications in the form of refereed journal articles and book chapters. He received Fulbright research grant in 1997. The other grants he obtained were from the Japan Foundation, the American Institute of Bangladesh Studies, University of Michigan-Ann Arbor, Eastern Illinois University, and Tennessee State University. In 1998, he visited Bangladesh and negotiated a comprehensive academic exchange agreement between TSU College of Business and Darul Ihsan University of Bangladesh. In 2014 he made another partnership agreement between Tennessee State University and Australian Academy of Business and Social Sciences (AABSS) under which, the JDA is publishing special issues with papers presented in the AABSS conferences. He is the recipient of the faculty excellence awards for research at Tennessee State University, Eastern Illinois University. He got Board of Advisors' research award at the TSU College of Business twice. On invitation, Dr. Wahid visited academic institutions in about 25 different countries to give public lectures and seminar presentations. Since 2008, he delivered 4 Keynote addresses in international conferences held in Malaysia, the Philippines, and Taiwan. Dr. Wahid read and reviewed 16 Ph.D. and a Master's dissertations as external examiner for various universities of Singapore, Australia, South Africa, Malaysia, India, Pakistan, and Bangladesh.
