List of Programs

On this page, review the list of teacher preparation programs offered by your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. If you submitted an IPRC last year, this list of programs is pre-loaded from your prior year's report. If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the programs in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, list all traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, list all alternative programs within the IHE. You may edit, delete, and insert new rows as necessary.

After reviewing and updating as necessary, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page. The system will automatically total the number of programs for you.

Supervised Clinical Experience

Provide the following information about supervised clinical experience in 2017-18. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(C\)\(iii\), §205\(a\)\(1\)\(C\)\(iv\))

Average number of clock hours required for student teaching	555
Average number of clock hours required for mentoring/induction support	100
Number of full-time equivalent faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year	8
Number of adjunct faculty supervising clinical experience during this academic year (IHE and PreK-12 staff)	5
Number of students in supervised clinical experience during this academic year	24

Please provide any additional information about or descriptions of the supervised clinical experiences:

The Elementary Education candidates are supervised by Master Clinicians. These are retired teachers and principals experienced with the school districts that we serve. They work directly with the teacher candidates, the university, and the school district to ensure that our candidates are having a rewarding student teaching experience. The teacher candidates are observed no less than four times.

Enrollment

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

On this page, enter the number of candidates for an initial teaching credential who are enrolled in the initial teacher preparation programs within your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. Do not report on the total number of students enrolled in the entire IHE. Do not include individuals who currently hold a teaching credential and are seeking additional licenses or endorsements, or individuals preparing for school-based careers other than classroom teachers (e.g., administrators, guidance counselors).

The Department recognizes that in many cases, candidates voluntarily report their race/ethnicity and gender data, and that in some cases, candidates may choose not to report this information. Please report on the race/ethnicity data you have available, though the data may not be complete. It is not expected that the sum of the enrolled students reported by race/ethnicity or by gender will necessarily equal the total number of students enrolled.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the candidates enrolled in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the candidates enrolled in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the candidates enrolled in the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the enrollment data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Enrollment

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled. Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2017-18. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Program Completers

On this page, enter the total number of individuals who completed the program in AY 2017-18 and the two prior academic years. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the number of program completers for the two prior academic years are pre-loaded from your prior year's report.

A program completer is a person who has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program. Program completers include all those who are documented as having met such requirements. Documentation may take the form of a degree, institutional certificate, program credential, transcript or other written proof of having met the program's requirements. In applying this definition, the fact that an individual has or has not been recommended to the state for initial certification or licensure may not be used as a criterion for determining who is a program completer.

An individual cannot be classified as both enrolled and as a program completer at the same time. An enrolled individual is not a program completer. Once an individual has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program and becomes a program completer, the individual is no longer classified as enrolled.

After entering the program completers, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Annual Goals

On this page, review the annual goals in each subject area listed below. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the goals you entered last year are pre-loaded from your prior year's report. Please respond to the questions to report on progress towards the goals, and set new goals for the next academic year.

After reviewing and updating as necessary, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Annual Goals - Mathematics

Each institution of higher education (IHE) that conducts a traditional teacher preparation program (including programs that offer any ongoing professional development programs) or alternative route to state credential program, and that enrolls students receiving Federal assistance under this Act, shall set annual quantifiable goals for increasing the number of prospective teachers trained in teacher shortage areas designated by the Secretary or by the state educational agency, including mathematics, science, special education, and instruction of limited English proficient students. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(A\)\(ii\), §206\(a\)\)

Information about teacher shortage areas can be found at <https://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ope/pol/tsa.html>.

Please provide the information below about your program's goals to increase the number of prospective teachers in mathematics in each of three academic years.

Academic year 2017-18

1. Did your program prepare teachers in mathematics in 2017-18?

- Yes
 No (leave remaining questions for year blank)

2. How many prospective teachers did your program plan to add in mathematics in 2017-18?

3. Did your program meet the goal for prospective teachers set in mathematics in 2017-18?

- Yes
 No
 Not applicable

4. Description of strategies used to achieve goal, if applicable:

N/A

5. Description of steps to improve performance in meeting goal or lessons learned in meeting goal, if applicable:

The program has taken the following steps to improve performance in meeting the goal to increase the number of science teacher candidates. 1. The program recruited students through the Noyce Grant and the Tom Joyner Grant. The Noyce grant offers a program called Project Tiger Teach. This program is funded by the National Science Foundation (NSF) that seeks to encourage talented science, technology, engineering and mathematics majors and professionals to become K-12 mathematics and science teachers. The Tom Joyner Teaching grant provides full tuition and housing scholarships for transfer students majoring in Math, Biology and Chemistry who want to become teachers. 2. The College of Education's Recruitment's recruitment plan has specific strategies that focus on increasing the number of teacher education candidates interested in the area of math. 3. 8. Describe your institution's most successful strategies in meeting the assurances listed above:

The Educator Preparation Provider (EPP) uses a year-long clinical residency model. The teacher candidates are placed with a mentor teacher in a P-12 classroom setting where a co-teaching model is practiced. Field experiences and clinical experiences in partner schools that are demographically diverse, provide access to models of best practice and supervised candidate experiences with struggling readers and writers. Furthermore, field and clinical placements across the programs of study are managed to assure diversity of placement (urban, suburban, rural).

Assessment Pass Rates

The pass rates table is populated from files provided by the testing company or state. The table provides information on the performance of the students in your teacher preparation program on each teacher credential assessment used by your state. In cases where a student has taken a given assessment more than once, the highest score on that test is used. In the case of a teacher preparation program with fewer than 10 scores reported on any single initial teacher credential assessment during an academic year, the program shall collect and publish information with respect to an average pass rate and scaled score on each state credential assessment taken over a three-year period. \(§205\(a\)\(1\)\(B\)\)

Please note that this page does not have an edit feature as the pass rates have already been through several rounds of verification. If you identify an error, please contact Westat's Title II Support Center and your testing company representative.

Use of Technology

1. Provide the following information about the use of technology in your teacher preparation program. Please note that choosing 'yes' indicates that your teacher preparation program would be able to provide evidence upon request. (§205\(a\)\(1\)\(F\))

Does your program prepare teachers to:

- a. integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction

Yes
 No

- b. use technology effectively to collect data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- c. use technology effectively to manage data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

- d. use technology effectively to analyze data to improve teaching and learning

Yes
 No

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to use the principles of universal design for learning, as applicable. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

The TSU Educator Preparation Program integrates technology into curricula, instruction, and assessments through required instructional technology courses (EDCI 4190 and EDCI 5190). The use of technology is further integrated in methods courses (EDCI 4550, EDCI 4600, and EDLI 4500) where teacher candidates design lessons incorporating the use of technology during instruction. Moreover, teacher candidates are required to utilize technology in virtually all education courses since coursework often requires employing technology in presentations (e.g., Prezi, Internet WEB 2.0 digital platforms, Nearpod) and to engage in online discussions. Candidates are prepared to use technology to collect, manage, and analyze data to improve teaching and learning by developing assessments that are administered electronically in the assessment and evaluation courses (PSYC 3120 or PSYC 5330). The University's learning management system provides a platform for candidates to document and analyze student performance data and self-assessment during clinical practice. The aforementioned assessments document the use of technology in the instructional episodes. Additionally, candidates complete the capstone portfolio assessment known as edTPA®. The portfolio requires candidates to prepare a 3-5 lesson segment including assessments and a video to demonstrate teaching the lesson segment. An analysis of the formal and informal assessments to determine the effectiveness of the instruction is also required. The edTPA® portfolio requires reflective writing on the use of assessment data to improve instruction. All prepared materials are submitted to Evaluation Systems Group by Pearson to be assessed by a national scorer. Consistent with the theme of the TSU Educator Preparation Program's conceptual underpinning, "committed to diversity and the success of all," the program prepares candidates to employ the principles of universal design for learning (UDL). Thus, several courses in the program, along with field experiences, implement the use of UDL: EDC 3120 Contexts for Teaching and Learning, EDCI 3500 Instructional Strategies, EDSE 3330 Education of Exceptional Children, and EDCI 2100 and EDCI 2200 Field Study in Education I & II. In accordance with UDL, candidates develop strategies for (1) providing multiple means of representation, (2) providing multiple means of expression, and (3) providing multiple means of engagement, so that all students may achieve academic success.

Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

The TSU Educator Preparation Program ensures that candidates develop skills to effectively teach students with disabilities, as well as students with limited English proficiency, through required special education and diversity courses (EDSE 3330 Education of Exceptional Children or EDSE 5330 Education and Psychology of Exceptional Children and EDCI 4900 Multicultural Education or EDCI 6300 Multicultural Education). Candidates are required, in the aforementioned courses, to demonstrate the use of differentiated-instruction in the lesson plans. Additionally, in the senior year, candidates are enrolled in a year-long clinical residency in the school system where candidates work with a mentor teacher designing instruction for both students with disabilities and students with limited English proficiency. During this residency year, candidates participate in individualized education program teams along with their mentor teacher. The candidates' field and clinical experiences with diverse and exceptional school populations are tracked and documented.

The U.S. Department of Education is especially interested in any evaluation plans or interim or final reports that may be available.

One of seven major academic divisions at Tennessee State University, the College of Education offers baccalaureate, master's, education specialist, and doctoral degrees through three academic departments: Teaching and Learning, Psychology, and Educational Leadership. The Educator Preparation Provider, coordinated by the College of Education, cuts across five other colleges: Agriculture, Human, and Natural Sciences, Life and Physical Sciences, Engineering, Health Sciences, and Liberal Arts. Undergraduate and post-baccalaureate degree programs lead to professional licensure in nineteen areas. All programs constituting the Educator Preparation Provider are state approved, and the EPP is CAEP accredited. Consistent with the mission of TSU, the Educator Preparation Provider endeavors to prepare competent, caring teachers, counselors, psychologists, administrators and other professionals to maximize learning among students and to work effectively with diverse schools and communities. The organizing theme and primary purpose of the Educator Preparation Provider is the preparation of "competent and caring facilitators of learning, committed to diversity and the success of all." Thus, the TSU Educator Preparation Program is designed to develop the knowledge, skills, and dispositions that enables teacher candidates to use their content knowledge competently in creating learning environments that support the learning of all students. Competent facilitators of learning are well prepared to engage students in the learning process successfully. • Facilitators of learning guide students in becoming independent, life-long learners who think critically and examine issues from multiple perspectives. In this collaborative process, instructor and learner engage in mutual inquiry in the acquisition of knowledge and skills. To be successful, facilitators must consider the learner's needs and abilities when (1) planning, (2) maximizing learning, (3) evaluating, (4) managing, (5) modeling professionalism, (6) communicating, and (7) specializing in content. • Educators who care ensure that instruction and evaluation are fair and responsive to diverse learners, acknowledging that the criteria for success may differ across individual learners, and that accurately measuring success requires differentiated instructional approaches and differentiated methods of assessments. • The commitment to success of all is built upon dedication to diversity, predicated on the belief that all learners can achieve and succeed, and confidence that facilitators of learning who are both competent and caring can indeed facilitate the success of all. This commitment affirms the need for educators to utilize appropriate tools to help all learners achieve their potential, regardless of background, ability, or other differences. As a historically black university, TSU is especially committed to diversity and expects similar commitment of program completers. The Teacher Education Program at TSU, populated by a diverse group of candidates predominantly trained in the multicultural, urban milieu of Nashville, Tennessee, prepares candidates to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse P-12 student population.
