

Alfred H. Gordon

Alfred H. Gordon graduated from Tennessee State University (TSU) with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering. He holds professional licensure in Louisiana and Ohio and is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineering. He sits on several Boards including: Big Brothers Big Sisters, the Krewe of Endymion Mardi Gras organization, and the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) chapters of Dallas, Texas and New Orleans, Louisiana.

While at TSU Mr. Gordon was initiated into the Rho Psi chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He remained an active member and served as Representative of the 4th District and Basileus of Beta Iota chapter in Cincinnati, Ohio.

After graduation Mr. Gordon joined the Procter & Gamble Company where he served in roles of increasing responsibility including Production Manager, Plant Manager and Design Engineer. In this role he led the conversion of Folgers Coffee from the iconic metal cans to vacuum packed foil bags. In 1981 Mr. Gordon joined the Frito-Lay division of PepsiCo, where he re-designed the Supply Chain division for the North American market. Mr. Gordon retired from PepsiCo in 2016 as Senior Vice President, North American Supply Chain.

Currently Mr. Gordon operates AHG & Associates, LLC, a Supply Chain and Organizational Development consulting firm. His client roster includes Ken's Foods, ADJMI, Inc., a Commercial Baking business, and CRC Global Solutions, a supply chain business.

Mr. Gordon is married to Lawanda Prince Gordon of Dayton, Ohio. They are the proud parents of two adult children, and have two grandchildren. Mr. Gordon is a passionate member of Tennessee State University Rho Psi Affinity Alumni Chapter. In 2019, Mr. Gordon celebrated 50 years as a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He and his wife have funded two endowed scholarships in Engineering and Nursing, and are members of the Lifetime Society Century Club, Legacy Society, and President's Society Vice President's Club.