

Charles S. West

Charles West is a Financial Advisor with Morgan Stanley Wealth Management. He is a 20 veteran of the banking and investment industry. He has held positions at fortune 500 firms such as Citibank and Charles Schwab & Co. He holds an undergraduate degree in Arts & Sciences from Tennessee State University in Nashville, TN and a Bachelor's degree in Financial Planning from Barry University in Miami Shores, FL in addition to the many classes, seminars and workshops related to helping individuals manage their financial resources effectively. He is a former member of the US Marine Corps., having served his country in the Middle East during operation "Desert Storm". Mr. West is a member of Rotary International and a member of the Delray Beach Chamber of Commerce. He is also a sitting board member of the Delray Beach Community land Trust.

Mr. West is a longtime advocate of educating children. Coming from a long line of educators, he has dedicated much of his spare time to helping young people develop in productive citizens that make positive contributions to our society. He is an advocate for education. He became involved with Charter Schools in its formative years. He has worked with Charter Schools throughout the state since 1996 when he became a board member of the "Central Charter School" in Lauderdale Lakes, FL, one of Broward County Florida's first Charter Schools. He has lectured at conferences and hosted workshops on money management for schools and planning for the future. He sees sound financial management as one of the biggest challenges facing charter schools today. In his spare time he coaches youth basketball, spends time with his family and spends time on his small farm in Okeechobee County. Mr. West lives in Delray Beach, FL with his wife Jeaneen and his two sons, Charles and Nicolas.