2016-2017 Annual Report

BETTER TOGETHER

Just as it takes professors, peers, family, and community to shape a student's path, the TSU Foundation relies on a mix of support to serve the University today and in the future. Every segment of the donor population serves a special purpose, and every donor plays a unique role in the great things we achieve.

We are better together.

DR. GLENDA GLOVER '74
PRESIDENT
TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY

Your gifts create pathways of opportunity for TSU, and those the University serves. As a result of your philanthropy, we can better leverage access to other significant investments to benefit the TSU value proposition.

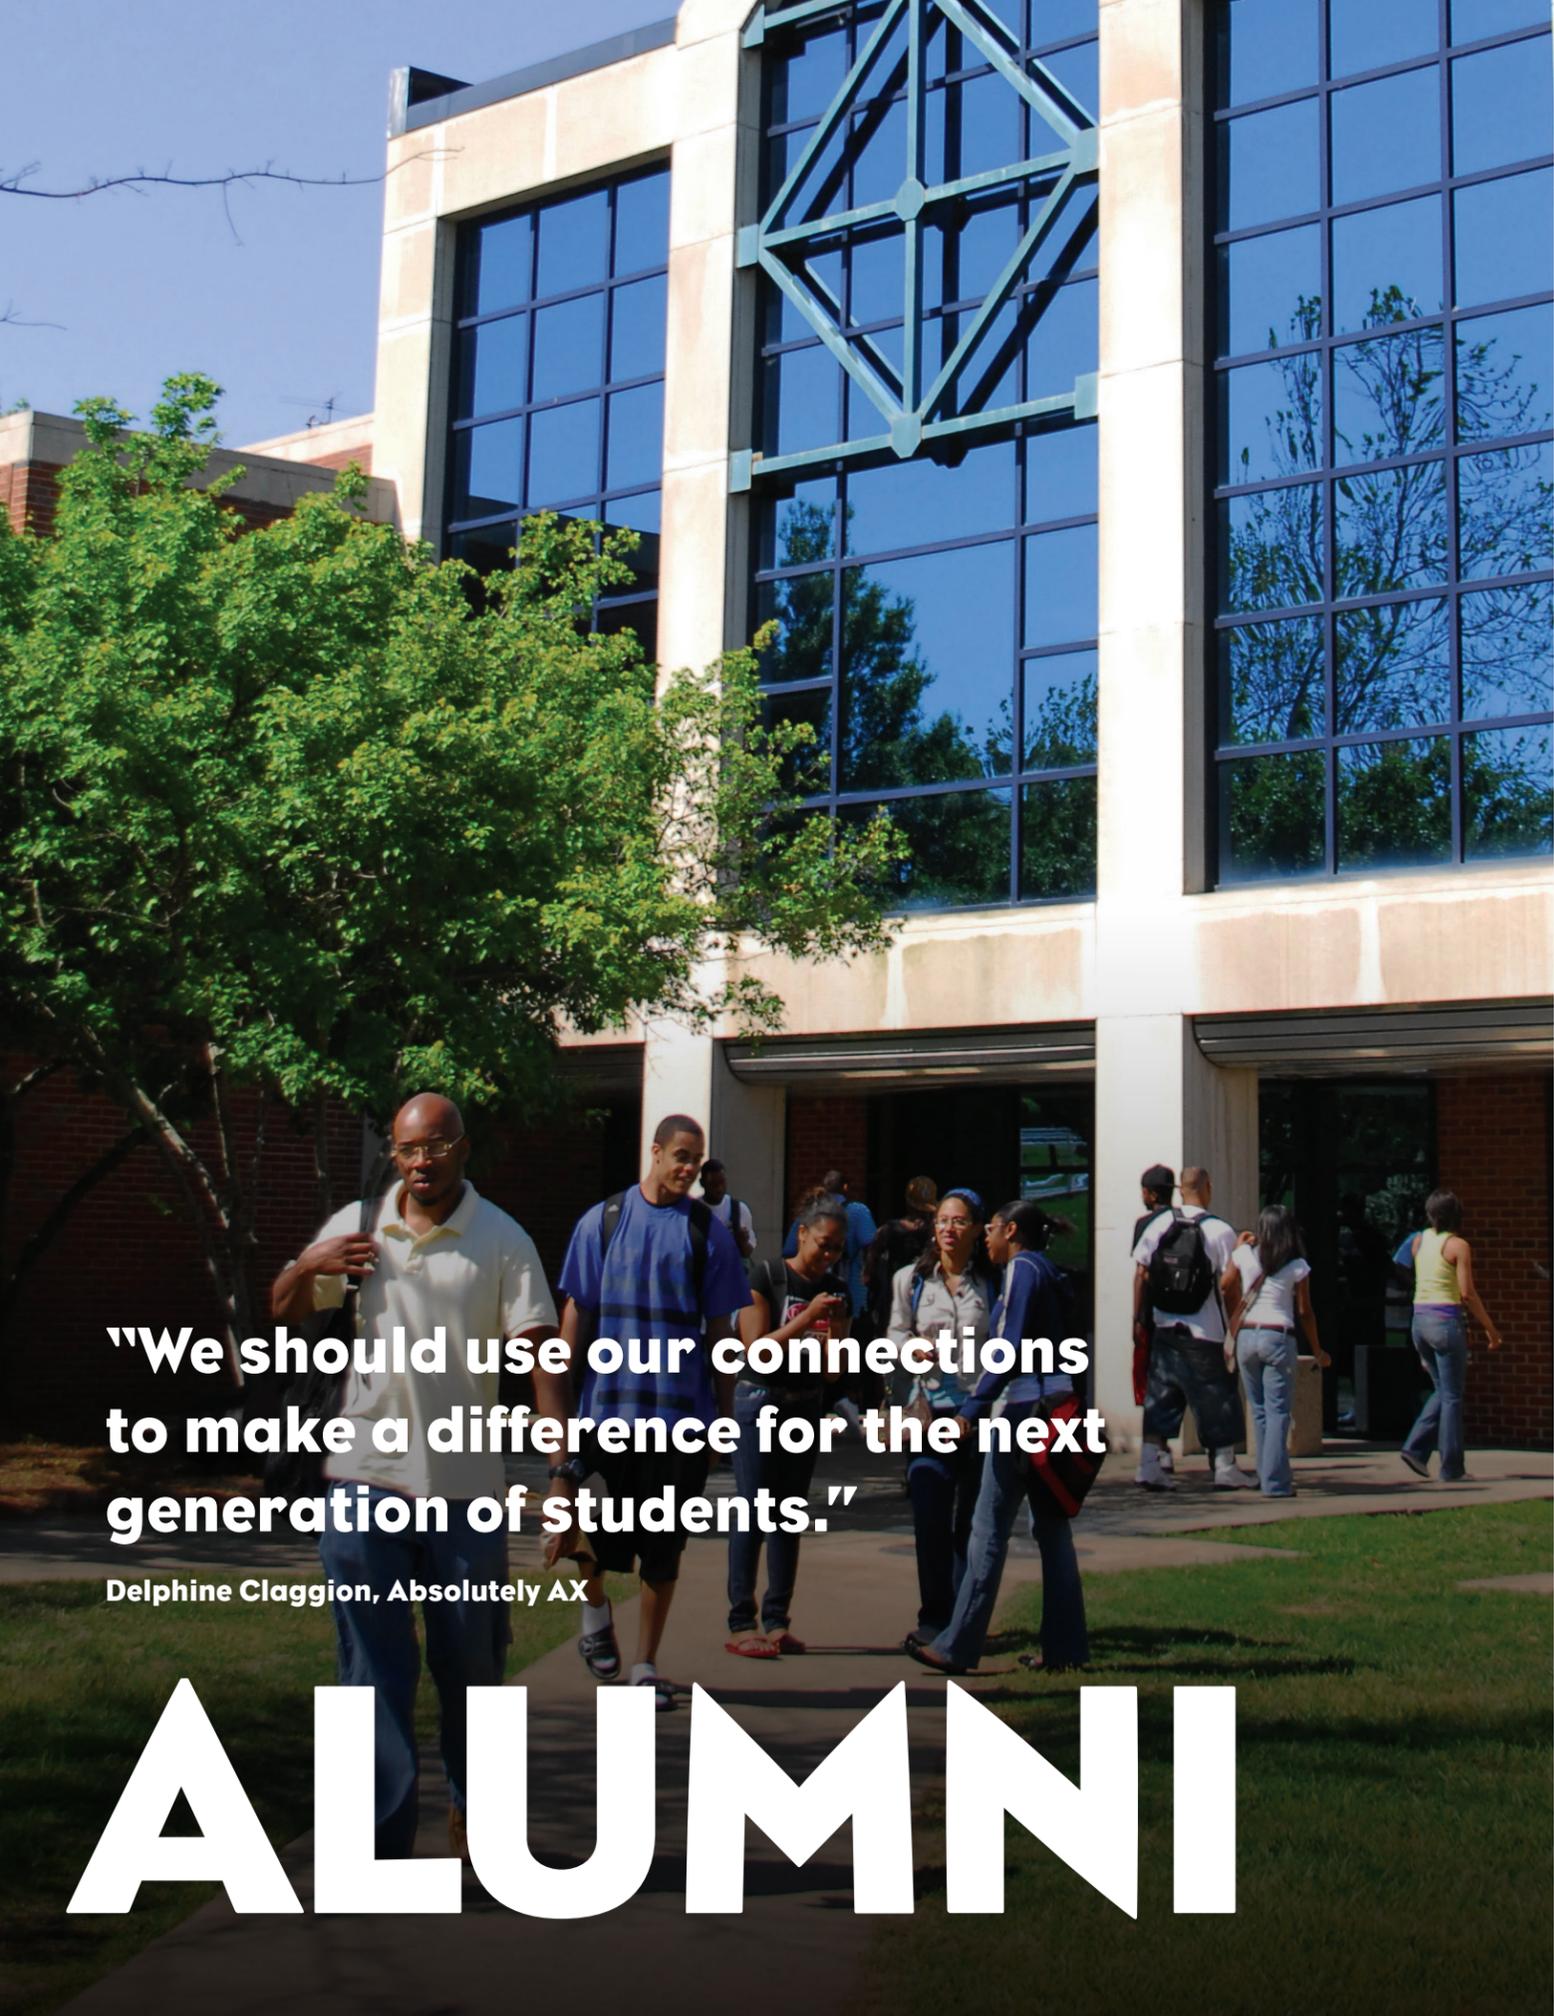

DWAYNE TUCKER '80
CHAIRMAN
TSU FOUNDATION BOARD OF DIRECTORS

It's powerful to see how the parts work together to create the whole at TSU — faculty teach, staff support, students learn. As each contributes, outcomes are achieved. This process of transformative education at TSU is made possible through the unconditional support of committed donors like you. Thank you for your generosity!

BETTER

TOGETHER

"We should use our connections to make a difference for the next generation of students."

Delphine Claggion, Absolutely AX

ALUMNI

Giving Where it all Begins

Alumni giving is more than a monthly or annual check; it's a connection that deepens over time.

Continuing a Personal Mission

TSU alumna Laura Teasley-Farwell (class of 1958) was the first in her family to graduate high school and attend college; her uncle Simon Teasley helped with tuition by working in one of TSU's boiler rooms. Sixty years later, Teasley-Farwell donated more than $300,000 to establish the Teasley Family Endowment Fund, providing scholarships for students in significant financial need. The gift made Teasley-Farwell a member of the Lifetime Society Century Club, recognizing donors who have given more than $100,000 to TSU. She is one of only ten alumni in a society of nineteen donors.

"I give because I'm in a position to do it," Teasley-Farwell says. "It was hard for us. If I can make it easier on someone, then I'm doing what I'm supposed to do."

Teasley-Farwell lives in Los Angeles and remains very active in the Far West Regional Los Angeles chapter of the Tennessee State University National Alumni Association and her beloved Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

Leveraging a Powerful Network

Sarah Chatman, Genevieve Brinkley-Johnson, Gwendolyn Prater, Felecia Webb Mackey and Delphine Claggion.

Delphine Claggion and Gwen Prater met at TSU in the 1970s as Alpha Chi sisters, and have remained close through the years despite the 700 miles between them. They credit their AX chapter for their enduring friendship.

"For years, we watched our affiliated fraternities raise hundreds of thousands of dollars for scholarships," says Prater. "One day we looked at each other and said, 'Why not us?' We're a strong network of women who choose to stay involved with the University and each other. We should use our connections to make a difference."

With volunteer help from Genevieve Brinkley-Johnson, Felecia Webb-Mackey and Sarah Chatman, the fundraising campaign quickly gained traction through emails and social media; friendly competition ignited participation between pledge lines. The effort raised more than $121,000 to establish the Absolutely AX Endowed Scholarship fund, the first of its kind at TSU to be started by a sorority-related affinity group.

"We didn't just ask our sisters for money," Claggion says. "We educated and informed them. We gave them reasons to give now and on a regular basis, and hopefully they will pass that passion on outside of our AX family."

"Corporate investment in our students' future is an investment in the company's future, too."

Tiffany Taylor, Director of Compliance, TSU

CORPORATIONS

Generosity is Good Business

Sometimes, corporate giving starts with personal connection; other times, it's all about a working partnership for the future.

Honoring a Mentor

Before serving as the CEO Of General Motors Canada, TSU alumnus Kevin Williams mentored 20 minority-owned suppliers through the company's Minority Business Development Program. Out of that group of young companies, Global Automotive Alliance (GAA) grew to become a multi-billion dollar industry powerhouse; GAA's owner, Dr. William Pickard, has attributed his business success to Williams' mentorship.

As a business coach, Kevin Williams strongly encouraged corporate support for HBCUs and introduced Pickard to TSU. "HBCUs serve an important purpose," says Williams. "They empower underrepresented people to compete and thrive, just like what we did at GM."

In 2017, Pickard and Sylvester Hester, CEO of TYJ, llc (a GAA subsidiary), surprised Williams with a $35,000 endowed scholarship in his honor at TSU. Funds from the Kevin Williams/Automotive Alliance Endowed Scholarship will be made available to students in the 2019-20 school year.

Despite his many professional accomplishments, Williams is most proud of "unlocking the secret" of a college degree. He was the first person in his family to go to college; today, more than 30 family members have followed in his footsteps. "TSU has not only changed my life," he says, "but improved the lives of generations who will come after me." Williams and his wife also established the Kevin and Arlene Williams Scholarship in 2014, through the TSU Foundation.

FedEx Grows Tomorrow's Talent

With new initiatives and innovative programs, TSU is creating exciting support opportunities that look more like strategic partnerships than traditional gifts.

Through the Blue Star Scholars Employment Pathways Program, longtime corporate supporter FedEx is helping re-imagine Leadership TSU, a robust effort to prepare our students to thrive and lead in the global workforce. Through workshops, guest speakers, and a new Innovation Lab, students will engage with local business executives to gain professional development, critical thinking skills, and practical experience as they prepare for success after graduation.

"Corporate investment in our students' future is in an investment in the donor's future, too," says Tiffany Taylor, TSU's Director of Compliance and Blue Star Scholar Coordinator. "Developing stronger graduates helps to grow and diversify the talent pipeline, as many TSU grads go on to work for FedEx in Memphis and beyond."

FedEx has supported TSU's students for more than a decade through the FedEx Endowed Scholarship. Nine students have received more than $15,000 in scholarship support over the last decade. Endowment earnings will serve students for many years to come.

Kevin Williams

Missions Aligned

We're proud to be a partner and a trusted steward for organizations dedicated to promoting community growth, investing in the future workforce, and preserving historic institutions.

Twenty Years with the Titans

The partnership began when the Houston Oilers moved to Nashville in 1998 to become the Tennessee Titans and TSU helped seal the deal by agreeing to share the new downtown stadium. Twenty years later, the partnership extends beyond the playing field.

"TSU is an anchor in our community," says Tina Tuggle, Community Relations Director for the Titans Foundation. "Our mission is to make a difference in the lives of the community in which we live and serve, and supporting the students at TSU is a natural fit."

"The Titans' founding owner, Mr. Bud Adams, truly wanted to provide real value for the students at TSU," says Barbara Murrell, Director of Community Relations at TSU. The Titans Foundation makes major gifts to the endowed scholarship that Mr. Adams and his wife established; six TSU students received the K.S. 'Bud' Adams Jr Endowed Scholarship in 2017.

A Memphis Tradition

Over the last five years, the Memphis-based Southern Heritage Foundation has given more than $140,000 in scholarship funds to support Memphians attending TSU. With so many TSU alumni living and working in Memphis, the foundation wants to encourage the "boomerang effect" between the two cities.

"TSU has been a beacon of light for so many people in Memphis" says Doug Jones, Chair of the Foundation's Board of Directors. "So many of us on the board got a helping hand along the way, and if we can reach back and help someone who wants to go further but doesn't have the means, we should. Chances are, they'll come back to Memphis and contribute to our economy, and will inspire others to do the same."

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Just down the street from TSU's main campus, St. James Missionary Baptist Church has committed a percentage of its annual budget to the TSU Foundation (as well as other HBCUs) for more than 30 years. "We want a more educated black community," says Dr. James Brooks, SJMBC Pastor. "It's not enough to push the young people in our congregation to go to college; we have to get behind the schools, too. TSU is more than a neighbor to us. It's a part of our history and our future."

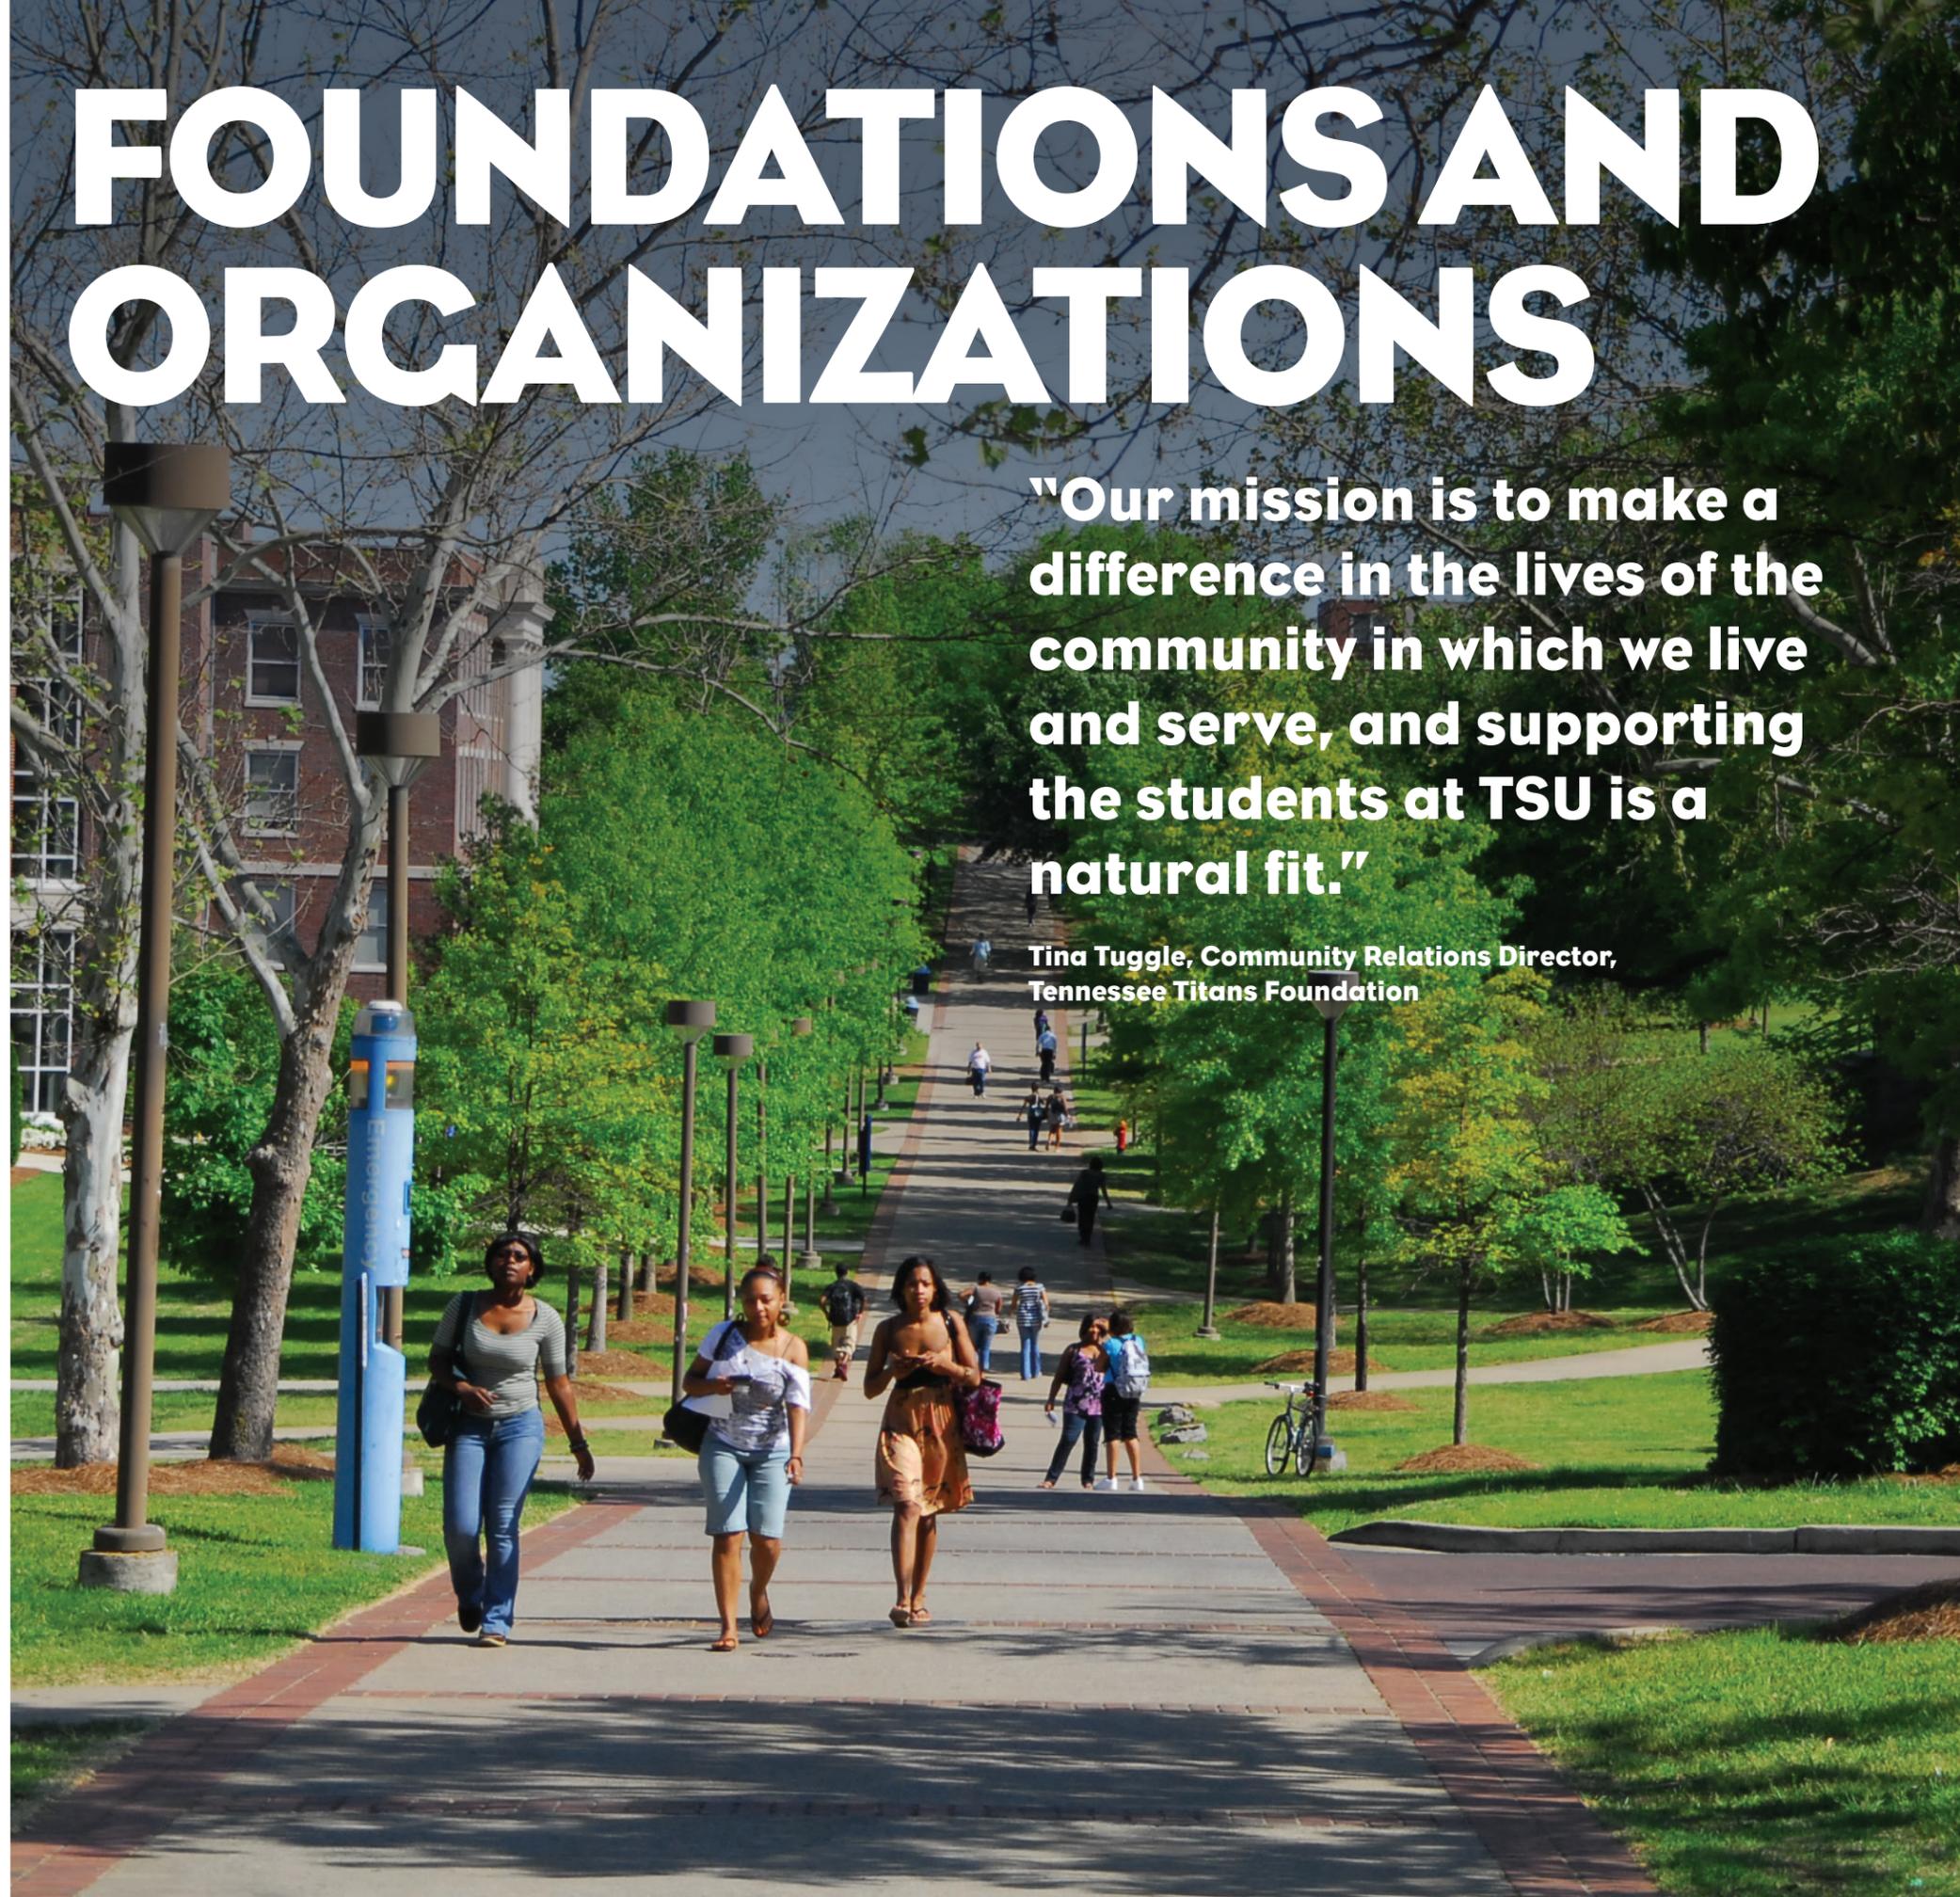

St. James Missionary Baptist Church

FOUNDATIONS AND ORGANIZATIONS

"Our mission is to make a difference in the lives of the community in which we live and serve, and supporting the students at TSU is a natural fit."

Tina Tuggle, Community Relations Director, Tennessee Titans Foundation

A Little Help from our Family and Friends

Our impact on the community ripples beyond our alumni base, and we're grateful that our family of support does, too.

Corporate Giving turns Personal

Tom Roush first encountered TSU long after his own college experience, tapped to join the university's Supply Chain Management Governing Board while serving as Vice President of Tractor Supply Company. When Roush retired, he not only volunteered to continue to sit on the supply chain management board as an individual contributor; in 2017, he established the $50,000 Thomas C. Roush Supply Chain Endowed Scholarship Fund. "As I spent more time with the students, I had a new understanding of the challenges that they had to overcome to be successful. This feels like a worthy use of my ability to give."

"Mr. Roush is extremely student focused," says Tracey Pleasants, TSU's Supply Chain Interim Director. "When you see a person with Tom's background continue his philanthropic relationship after his corporate responsibility ends, that speaks volumes to other leaders."

Roush still sits on the University's SCM board, and will teach part of TSU's Executive MBA program in the summer of 2018.

A Sister's Legacy

Gloria Ross White

Though TSU isn't her alma mater, Cathy Ross established a $100,000+ scholarship here in memory of a special TSU graduate: her sister, Gloria. The Gloria Ross White Endowed Scholarship in Business honors the 1976 graduate killed in a car accident at the age of 29, leaving behind a husband and son. She was a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

"Our parents fully believed in the power of education, and were strong supporters of Gloria and I not only attending school but excelling in our studies. I established this scholarship in honor of my sister and my whole family, to help people who might not have the opportunity to pay for an education," says Ross.

Staff Commitment

Dr. Joseph Perry is not only a four-time graduate of TSU; he's also the Director of Sustainability and Facilities Management and a member of the TSU Foundation's President's Society and Legacy Society, honors earned through more than a decade of consistent giving.

For Perry, giving is bigger than financial contributions; he is invested in growing great leaders. "We have a lot of first-generation students here," he says. "They come to school unsure if they'll be able to continue what they start."

If every graduate and staff member would just give...we could help so many people become strong leaders in the workforce and in the community."

FACULTY, STAFF AND FRIENDS

"I've always been very proud of the opportunity that TSU gave me, and I want to keep investing in the school that opened so many doors for me. My giving is my way of showing appreciation."

Dr. Joseph Perry, Director of Sustainability and Facilities Management

WAYS TO GIVE

Tennessee State University counts on the generous contributions of alumni and friends to fulfill its commitment of providing top quality affordable education to our students. Your gift to the Tennessee State University Foundation allows us to provide scholarships, departmental support, and meet the needs of other special projects that benefit our students.

Every gift, no matter what size, makes a difference.

Thank you for your support!

Make an Annual Gift

An unrestricted gift to the TSU Foundation provides flexibility to use that money where its needed the most – most often for scholarships just like those you read about here.

Create an Endowment

An endowment is an excellent way to leave your legacy. With a minimum gift of $25,000, the TSU Foundation will manage your investment in the university in perpetuity. The earnings can fund a scholarship or be designated to other university programs in accordance with your wishes.

Establish a Planned Gift

Consider including TSU in your estate planning by naming the university as a beneficiary in your will. This will provide tax advantages for your estate and allow you to show your loyalty and support to TSU, without impacting your current finances. More at www.tnstatelegacy.org

1. To be informed of the organization's mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.
2. To be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
3. To have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.
4. To be assured their gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
5. To receive appropriate acknowledgment and recognition
6. To be assured that information about their donations is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.
7. To expect that all relationships with individuals representing organizations of interest to the donor will be professional in nature.
8. To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of the organization or hired solicitors.
9. To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that an organization may intend to share.
10. To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.
