

DEPT. OF RESIDENCE LIFE AND HOUSING

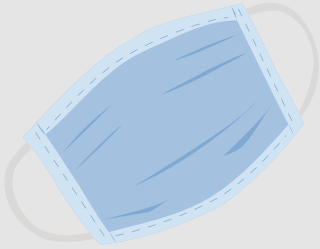

SAFER IN PLACE POLICIES & EXPECTATIONS

Residence Hall Curfew: 11:00pm - 6:00am

Students are required to return to their residential facility by 11:00 p.m.

Students returning late WILL receive a student citation.

Students should remain in their residential facility until 6:00 a.m.

1

Tennessee State University REQUIRES the wearing of face coverings in all University buildings when outside of your residence hall room or apartment. Students are responsible for their own face covering. Face covering use is strongly encouraged outdoors whenever personal interactions within 6 feet are likely to occur. For your safety, face coverings are not required when exercising outdoors, but physical distancing remains very important.

2

You MAY NOT invite to campus any guest or Tennessee State University students not approved to live on campus.

3

We are suspending all visitor access from one residence hall/apartment complex to another. You may not visit residential facilities where you are not assigned to live.

4

We ask that you limit your travel off campus for the essential needs such as medical care, groceries, and dining take-out.

5

You must follow all university policies, including but not limited to those covering alcohol and drugs, health and safety, and Title IX.

6

You must throw away all trash in your room to maintain a very sanitized environment

7

Cooperate with any temperature or screenings conducted by authorized university officials

8

Students must be responsive to the university and university officials regarding health and safety directives, including but not limited to university communications, and Tennessee State University.

9

The occupancy of common areas, including but not limited to lounges, study rooms, and computer labs will be reduced. Laundry rooms will remain open and students will need to wear a face covering and continue to maintain physical distancing as set forth above when they are out of their apartment or dorm room. Students are not required to wear masks in their immediate hallways or common bathrooms, although it is strongly encouraged.

10

All public and private gatherings of people occurring within a student's room or apartment that violates the above parameters are prohibited. This includes but is not limited to parties of all types, which are expressly prohibited. Note that smoking of any kind in or near buildings is strictly prohibited.
