

Tennessee State University Housing Agreement

General Guidelines

1. The term of the housing agreement is binding from the date of assignment until the end of the academic year, or until the end of the Summer term when applying for Summer housing. The Summer term is a supplemental term not inclusive of the academic year, thus a separate application is required when requesting housing for the Summer term.
2. With the exception of the campus apartments, all University Housing facilities will be closed during the Semester Break (period between the fall and spring semesters) and Spring Break. It is recommended that residents take all their valuables with them over the breaks. Personal belongings left in the room will be the responsibility of the student.
3. Opening and closing dates and times for room occupancy must be observed. Residents may not move into their rooms early, nor will they deliver personal property to their rooms before the residence facilities open. Residents must follow established guidelines when "checking-in" and/or "checking-out" of housing. Failure to do so will result in additional charges to the student's account.
4. A resident shall not move out of the residence facility during the term of the academic year without approval of a completed Housing Cancellation Agreement form. Cancellation fees will apply.
5. A resident who vacates the residence facility prior to the end of the Academic Year shall forfeit all housing fees except in the specific circumstances defined under Fees, Cancellation, and Refund Policies.
6. Students hosting other students/individuals unlawfully are in violation of the Tennessee State University Housing Agreement and are subject to immediate suspension from housing.
7. Transfers from one residence facility to another must be approved by the Housing Assignments Office.
8. Room and/or apartment changes within a specific University Housing facility must be approved by the Residence Hall Director of that facility and/or Housing Assignments Office.
9. Individual occupants of double/triple rooms shall be required to consolidate in accordance with consolidation policies.
10. Students residing in University Housing are required to participate in the Meal Plan during the Fall and Spring Semesters.
11. Residence Life and Housing has the authority to conduct Health and Safety Inspections, in accordance with the Room Inspection policy set forth in the Campus Living Guide
12. In accordance with campus safety policies, students in University Housing are subject to surveillance and use of detection devices including the use of metal detectors.
13. Students found in violation of the terms of this Housing Agreement are subject to termination of this Agreement and the imposition of penalties in accordance with the procedures set forth in Residence Life and Housing Judicial Board and/or TSU Student Conduct policies.
14. Applicants submitting this Housing Agreement accept the terms and conditions elaborated herein.
15. Additional rules and regulations may apply as noted in the Campus Living Guide, TSU Student Handbook, and other published documents.

Student Residence Regulations

Because Tennessee law (TCA 40-39-211) prohibits sex offenders required to register under Tennessee law (TCA Title 40, Chapter 39, Part 2) from knowingly establishing a primary or secondary residence or any other living accommodation within one thousand feet (1,000') of the property line of any public school private or parochial school, licensed day care center, other child care facility, public park, playground recreation center or public athletic field available for use by the general public, registered sex offenders are not eligible for housing at Tennessee State University.

20. Security. Campus security, including the security of students residing in TSU residence halls and apartments, is a paramount priority for the institution. Accordingly, any student who violates the Housing Agreement, Campus Living Guide, or Student Handbook's security related provisions, including provisions governing possession or presence of firearms, will be subject to significant disciplinary action, including the possible suspension or expulsion from the University and/or the termination of this Housing Agreement.

21. Compliance. All residents are subject to and must comply with the University's Campus Living Guide (<http://www.tnstate.edu/housing/CampusLivingGuide.aspx>), Student Handbook, including the Student Code of Conduct (http://www.tnstate.edu/campus_life/documents/StudentHandbook.pdf), Residence Life policies, and applicable state and federal laws. Students who violate institutional policies, including the policies referenced herein, will be subject to disciplinary action and/or Residence Life and Housing procedures.

Enrollment Status

1. To remain eligible to reside in student housing, the resident must maintain enrollment at the University.
2. The resident agrees to vacate the facility within 48 hours after the loss of status as an enrolled student. Student ID cards will be confiscated at checkout by Residence Hall Directors. Failure to comply will result in additional housing charges and fines, and charges of trespassing on state property.

Refund of Residence Facility Room and Board

Housing charges will be pro-rated on a daily basis when a student is forced to withdraw from a residence hall/apartment under the following conditions:

1. If a student fails to register for courses by the fourteenth day of the semester.
2. Personal medical reasons confirmed in writing by a licensed physician, and approved by the appropriate University official.
3. At the request of the University for reasons other than disciplinary.
4. 100% percent of fees will be refunded in the death of a student.
5. No refund shall be made if a student withdraws from the University or University Housing for disciplinary reasons.

Registered Students asking for and receiving an exception to the cancellation policy will be eligible to receive funds based on the University's 100%, 75%, 25%, 0 refund policy.

*NOTE: Return of fees is based upon the University's Refund Policy, as follows (including weekends):

- 100% before the first day of classes
- 75% beginning the first day of classes through the fourteenth day;
- 25% beginning the fifteenth (15th) day of classes through 25% of the term;
- 0% after the 25% refund period

*Residents are not released from this agreement at the end of the Fall semester because this application is contracted for the academic year (Fall-Spring). Applicants of "Spring Only" housing are subject to the aforementioned cancellation dates and related refund percentages, if their submitted Housing Cancellation Agreement request is approved.

ALL ROOM ASSIGNMENTS ARE CONTRACTED FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR AND ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. CANCELLATION FEES APPLY.
