

Dr. Robert L. Hampton's Biography:

Robert L. Hampton, PhD, is professor of Sociology and Social Work and former Provost/Executive Vice President, at Tennessee State University. He previously served as President and as Professor of Social Sciences at York College of the City University of New York, and has also served on the faculties of the University of Maryland, College Park; Connecticut College; and Harvard Medical School. Dr. Hampton has published extensively in the field of family violence and is one of the founders of the Institute on Domestic Violence in the African American Community.

Link on amazon.com: http://www.amazon.com/s/ref=nb_sb_noss?url=search-alias%3Dstripbooks&field-keywords=handbook+of+african+american+health&ih=14_17_3_0_0_0_1_0_0_1.140_97&fsc=-1