

Innocent Man Down:

Justice for Trayvon and Michael Brown

ARTIST: Carlton Wilkinson is a native of Nashville, Tennessee. He holds an M.F.A. from the University of California and a B.F.A. from Washington University, St. Louis, Missouri.

Wilkinson is an art photographer who performs his artwork as an extension of his passion for the human experience. He was a recipient of the Tennessee Artist Fellowship, the state's highest honor for an artist, in 1994.

He has exhibited nationally at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, DC, and at the University of Notre Dame, Vanderbilt University, University of Berkeley, California and several other private and public art galleries. His photography has been included in a traveling exhibition and book, Reflections in Black. His 25th year, Respective, Coming Home, was exhibited at the Parthenon Museum in 2005.

Wilkinson taught college level photography for over 25 years including the University of California-Los Angeles, University of North Carolina, Wilmington, Vanderbilt University and Fisk University. He is an active art photographer and art broker/curator and owner of Wilkinsonarts.com and a previous owner of - In the Gallery in Nashville, Tenn. (1986-2006).

#