

Required courses/credit hours for application to the TSU M.OT Program and suggested courses for undergraduate enrollment. Refer to TSU course catalog and read course descriptions if you are considering transferring in a course from another university.

Required Pre-requisite Course		TSU undergraduate courses that meet this requirement ( not all-inclusive; other courses may qualify – contact department with questions )
General psychology	3 credits	Psych 2010
Abnormal psychology	3 credits	Psych 3210
Developmental psychology covering the lifespan	3 credits	Psych 3510
Anatomy and Physiology I	4 credits	BIOL 2210 & 2211 (Human Anatomy & Lab)
Anatomy and Physiology II	4 credits	BIOL 2220 & 2221 (Human Physiology & Lab)
Statistics	3 credits	HCAP 4900 (Healthcare Research)  PSYC 2180 (Elementary Statistics)  PSYC 2125 (Introductory Research Methods)  HLSC 4010 (Introduction to Biostatistics)
Medical Terminology	1-3 credits	HIMA 1040
Physics OR Kinesiology OR Biomechanics	3-4 credits	PHYS 2010/2011 (College Physics I/College Physics I Lab) Note: TSU requires completion of pre-requisite MATH 1720 or MATH1730 with “C” or better for this course  HLSC 2140 (Physics Principles for Health Science)  HPSS 3130 (Kinesiology)
Introductory course in sociology or anthropology	3 credits	SOCI 2010