

Francis “Frank” Pleban, Ph.D.

Education

- BS: Health Promotion
Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan
- MA: Human Anatomy & Physiology
Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan
- MS: Occupational & Environmental Health Science/Industrial Hygiene
Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan
- Ph.D.: Public Health Education
Southern Illinois University Carbondale, Carbondale, Illinois

Research Interest

- Environmental Risk & Protective Factors Influencing Child & Adolescent Health

Courses Taught

- Anatomy for Health Professionals
- Health Conditions in Function & Disability
- Maternal & Child Health
- Health Promotion & Disease Prevention

Professional Memberships

- American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP): Section of Developmental & Behavioral Pediatrics / Child Death Review & Prevention Provisional Section / Council on School Health / Tennessee Chapter AAP
- American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA): Toxicology Committee / Communications & Training Methods Committee / Total Worker Health Taskforce

Contact Information

Tennessee State University
Public Health, Health Administration & Health Sciences
330 10th Avenue North, AWC Suite D-413
Phone: 615-963-7330
Email: fpleban@tnstate.edu

