

- As the EPICCC Project develops further, you will have access to the web platform where you will find additional information about promoting health in your congregation.
- As we find more health program that might work for churches, your team will also have access to the health information and resources on the website.
- The Congregational Health and Education Network (CHEN) staff will continue to be a resource and support for your church members.