

- The research team will summarize the results of the survey your EPICCC team completes and provide a written report.
- The report will highlight your congregation's strengths for providing the health promotion program you selected, and offer suggestions for addressing challenges your team may have identified so that you can be more successful in offering the program to your congregants.