

- After your EPICCC Team has selected an evidence-based program, your Team will be asked to complete the EPICCC Survey together.
- This Survey was designed using questions asked in other projects to help churches promote health programs in their congregations.
- The Survey will give members of the Project Team opportunities to learn from each other about your congregation's strengths, and perhaps some challenges you might face, for offering the health program you selected.