

MAJOR MAP

WHO WE ARE

- Welcome to the Economics and Finance Department at the College of Business! Our program is uniquely designed to equip you with rigorous analytical skills and a deep understanding of economic principles and financial analysis.
- You'll gain valuable insights into economic problems faced by modern economies and learn how to apply these principles in real-world scenarios. Whether you're aiming for a career in economics, finance, international business, or government, our program provides a strong foundation for success.
- Join us to become a sought-after professional, ready to make an impact in the corporate world or pursue further studies in economics, law, or business.

CAREER OUTCOMES:

- Financial Analyst
- Economic Consultant
- Business Analyst
- Market Research Analyst
- Investment Banking Analyst
- Risk Management Specialist
- Government Economic Analyst

AREAS OF STUDY:

- Economics
- Finance
- International Business

What skills will students learn throughout this program?

- Students in the Economics and Finance program will understand economic theories and applying them to real-world situations.
- Building models to analyze financial data and forecast future trends.
- Identifying and addressing complex economic and financial issues.
- Effectively conveying complex ideas in writing and speaking.
- Conducting thorough research and synthesizing information.
- Using statistical methods to interpret and analyze data.

WHAT SKILLS ARE YOUR FUTURE EMPLOYERS LOOKING FOR?

- Analytical Skills
- Quantitative Skills
- Problem-Solving Skills
- Communication Skills
- Research Skills
- Critical Thinking
- Global Awareness
- Adaptability
- Teamwork
- Ethical Understanding
- Language skills:

For more information, click here
<https://www.tnstate.edu/economics/>

Undergraduate Experiential Major Map: Economic & Finance

First Year/Freshman

- Complete your Handshake Profile.
- Complete your four-year educational plan in UNIV 1000 during the fall semester.
- Focus on your studies and earn good grades.
- Visit the Office of Student Success \(OSS\) and connect with your advisor for help navigating college life and your classes. Make an appointment using the student planner app and view the OSS page for other hours and services.
- First Generation students connect with your First Generation Specialist.
- Get to know professors. The best time to connect outside of class is during their office hours.
- Visit the Academic Achievement and Retention Center for access to study tips, connecting to academic coaches, tutoring, and other helpful resources.
- Attend the Career Fair (Sponsored by the Career Development Center)
- Get involved - Attend organizational fairs, special/corporate events, and volunteer on and off campus.

Sophomore & Junior

- Update your resume and remove high school activities. Have it critiqued by the Career Development Center.
- Review and update LinkedIn and Handshake profiles.
- Attend the Career Fair (Sponsored by the Career Development Center)
- Explore graduate school options.
- Begin preparing for GRE, LSAT, MCAT, GMAT, and other exams for graduate school admissions.
- Begin building your professional wardrobe.
- Meet with your departmental academic advisor to confirm degree progress and discuss your future academic and career goals.
- Attend institutional and departmental internship workshops.

Senior

- Meet with your departmental academic advisor to confirm degree progress and discuss your future academic and career goals.
- Apply for Graduate and Professional School or jobs that fit your interests, skills, and career goals. Follow up on applications and keep a record of the status of each.
pay attention to due dates*
- Draft a cover letter that can be adapted for a variety of employers. Have it critiqued.
- Complete the Senior Exit Exam and First Destination Survey. (Testing Center)

Academic Success Checklist

- Book an appointment with your academic advisor for pre-registration and advising.
- Discover library resources.
- Visit the math, reading, writing, and tutoring center.
- Complete FAFSA and academic scholarship applications.

Educational Planning Checklist

- Ask your academic advisor about High Impact Practices
- Participate in at least two High Impact Practices at TSU
- Join a student group.

Career Development Checklist

- Create your HandShake Profile.
- Visit What Can I Do With This Major
- Attend the career fair to expand your network.
- Attend Academic Department workshops and seminars.
- Visit the Academic Pathways & Partnerships

Think

Engaging in critical thinking and inquiry inside the classroom.

Work

Pursue experiences that will allow you to grow as a leader and professional.

Serve

Explore opportunities to contribute to the broader community and global marketplace.