

Position: Graduate Research Assistant- BS in Psychology Program

GA will aid program coordinators in administrative duties including data collection and completion of required assignments. Additional assistance for special program projects as assigned by the coordinators that may include activities such as data and literature searches.