

Position: Graduate Assistant- Assessment

Reports to the Director of Accreditation and Assessment

The graduate assistant will contribute to the overall mission of the College, participate in relevant meetings/training, and continually work using data to inform and improve programs and services. The graduate assistant will manage multiple projects at once and work with various types of data from several university databases. They will work directly with faculty and other administrators to answer key questions/indicators for progress.