

Position: Graduate Assistant- The Graduate Writing Hub

The Writing Consultant GA's role is to provide writing support for undergraduate and graduate students through one-to-one consultations, group workshops and writing events. While the majority of the consultant's work will be one-to-one consultation with individual writers, the graduate consultant is expected to work with writing center faculty and other faculty members and other graduate students to assess writing needs and to help develop resources to support students.